A Political Dynasty in the Limelight...

Benazir Bhutto - Sherry Rehman - Bilawal Bhutto: The Deep and Dark Secrets

"Sexual adventurism of some high-profile Pakistani women"

"The story of wife swapping in the Indian Navy has hit the news headlines everywhere. The wife of a naval officer filed a complaint against her husband that he had forced her to be a part of wife swapping with other naval officers... She says that wife swapping is a common practice in the Navy."

Sexual adventurism is widely believed to be a game played by men - where women are the target of men's sexual wilderness. Most of such stories revolve around these premises...

In contrast, now a story has emerged about the sexual adventures of some high-profile women. These women engage/hire go-go boys for their sexual escapades... And strange enough - that these women are not from a sexually-liberal country but from a political dynasty of Pakistan.

Bilawal Bhutto Zardari who is now considered by his powerful family to be the successor to their political legacy and one day to lead Pakistan as the head of state is not engaged just in light romantic affairs... The entire media was shouting only about his romantic or sexual affair with Hina Rabbani Khar - which is actually not a serious matter for anyone with liberal thoughts! But there's another side to all this, which is so dark that it can shock even the most liberal and open minded people.

This story reveals about the libertine sex lives of Benazir Bhutto, Sherry Rehman and Bilawal Bhutto. Sherry Rehman, recent Pakistani Ambassador to the United States and a very close friend of Benazir Bhutto has been organizing secret VIP sex parties in UK and Dubai where partners are openly exchanged. Benazir was always a principal participant in these sex parties. And now Bilawal is among the distinguished guests in these wild gatherings. A new sex party was planned in Dubai during August 2013 by Sherry Rehman where Bilawal Bhutto and some high-profile women from Pakistan were invited. "The event was exposed when the man who is the co-organizer with Sherry Rehman for these secret VIP sex parties invited a new woman Saira to their sexual escapades".

This man Omar was actually engaged/hired in the past and present to give his “intimate services” to Benazir and Sherry Rehman. He provides his services to some well-known Pakistani women. It is said that enough evidences have been collected that reflect the sexual adventurism of these high-profile women. These evidences include the e-mail communications between various participants of these sex parties. Omar, in his e-mail communications with Saira, has graphically described how he himself and other men had sex with Benazir and Sherry Rehman together in group sex sessions. These communications are a kind of written confessions that carry the first-hand accounts of sexual encounters in VIP sex parties... They also clearly specify about the “incest” in Benazir’s family, “Incest is like a tradition or custom in their family, that’s what I have seen with Benazir”, Omar revealed to Saira. Ironically, when Sherry Rehman found out that Omar was having communications with Saira, she was furious and asked Omar to stop immediately all the communications with her. Earlier, Sherry Rehman herself and one of her female friends had correspondence with Saira revealing to each other about their libertine sex lives...

An interesting conflict on Dubai scene emerged – in luxury hotels’ lobbies and around Benazir’s villa in Emirates Hills (the venue for sex party). Sherry Rehman had angrily told Omar to cancel his invitation to Saira for this sex party. But in the meanwhile Saira had already reached UAE. She warned Omar that first she was invited so warmly, and now she was set aside, so she would just go in front of Benazir’s villa and create a BIG SCENE there like a protest, which could also create a problem for Sherry. Sherry got confused on this warning. So she abruptly changed the venue for her sex party. But Omar’s rented car no D76732 was seen in and out of Benazir’s villa in front of Montgomery Golf Course. Omar also tried to meet Saira secretly in a hotel’s lobby. He had been really eager to see her! Ultimately, Sherry Rehman’s conflict with Saira - and Omar’s desire for this woman exposed the darkest secrets of a political dynasty.

*Live never to be ashamed if anything you do or say is published around the world.
Richard Bach, in his book, “Illusions”*

As I read the above passage, I wonder if those high-profile people who are known to advocate certain bold views in their private behind-the-door gatherings, will they ever have the courage to stand for their own ways of life? - the lifestyle that they fiercely support and secretly follow...

Indecent Correspondence unfolds the secret lives of some very high-profile people from Pakistan.

It reveals what's going on in their secret VIP sex parties... And it's much more than some usual sex affairs!

This book has included the e-mail correspondence made between various participants of this secret lifestyle.

This correspondence explicitly describes how some people from the top echelon of a political dynasty were/are engaged in such strange and shocking activities that no one could have ever imagined!

At this point, one might oppose to accept e-mail communications as the evidence.

So I would cite 3 recent cases where e-mail correspondence and a statement from a relevant person have played the key role to stir a course of action:

E-mail communications played a key role in the story that revolved around US Commander General Allen, Jill Kelley, CIA Director General Petraeus and Paula Broadwell. It revealed the affair between General David Petraeus and Paula Broadwell, which then led to the resignation of CIA Director General Petraeus. In this case, there were no photographs or videos. Only the relevant e-mails were exposed that started an investigation by the FBI and the media.

Recent “Memogate scandal” about Hussain Haqqani, Pakistan’s Ambassador to the US emerged through his letter written to US military chief. All the noise was for tracking-down his BlackBerry communications.

The story of wife swapping in the Indian Navy is also an example... where the wife of a naval officer filed a complaint against her husband for forcing her to be a part of wife swapping with other naval officers. She says that wife swapping is a common practice in the Navy. Here we have only a statement filed by the wife. There's no written invitation to such gatherings from any participant.

But in regard to the revelations about a political dynasty of Pakistan - this book presents first-hand written accounts of certain participants in form of their e*mail communications - some of which also mention incest.*

Some communications describe everything so graphically that they might fall out of the scope of this book.

However most of this correspondence is included in this book.

I am sure some people will threaten me with lawsuits and deny everything portrayed in this book. I will warmly welcome them in a court of law for an open debate and cross-examination of the evidences.

Actually, I have already handed-over all the communications to some officials from a high authority.(So that everything can be verified, whenever necessary).

It also reminds me of Mariyah Salih's Harem Girl.

Omar:

Saira dear, I have sent your book to Bilawal and Sherry. I wrote how open-minded you are. But if I get your new photo, it's good. Bilawal is surely coming to this sex party. I was with him in three sex parties earlier. This will be his 4th one. Saira, I normally don't talk about my clients. It is not my way of doing things but because you have told me openly about your personal life and are so open and free-minded, so I will share with you only. I am a professional in my field and I am proud of it. Now I provide services to Sherry Rehman and Shehla

I will always remember that. It was in London and she booked a session with me for the whole night. (Saira I know you understand this fact that every woman has the right to do for her life as she likes). I really loved Benazir as a woman, she was very active sexually. Yes, “incest” makes people go more wild in sex. That’s what I see with Benazir’s family. It’s like a tradition and custom in their family. I will explain it later.*

Saira Mir: The woman whose story led to expose the secret sex life of Benazir Bhutto

Kiran Yusufzai

SAIRA MIR TO SHERRY REHMAN AND BENAZIR BHUTTO

A woman deceived a man who was her husband, on the initiative of another man in her life. Saira filed for divorce in the court in Pakistan and made a shocking accusation against her husband:

“He proposed to me to participate in sex parties in Paris and exchanging partners in swingers’ clubs. Being a woman from a traditional family background, I refused his proposal and left him!”

The truth was just the opposite... Both of them had been active participants in private sex parties and exclusive clubs in Paris where partners were openly exchanged. They had this lifestyle for more than ten years. The husband wanted to expose this facet of their life. But he could not make it. She left with another man.

Many years passed by...

A book appeared, “My Sex Life in Paris” by Saira Mir. The book was read by a woman, Kiran Yusufzai who had been doing research on the sex life of high-profile women from Pakistan and India. Kiran wrote to Saira. They both started the correspondence... Kiran revealed to Saira about the sex lives of some high-caliber ladies including Benazir Bhutto, former Prime Minister of Pakistan - and Sherry Rehman, Pakistan’s Ambassador to the United States. Kiran had been very close to both of them.

Kiran, a swinger herself and a bisexual - and Saira with all the experience of her sex life in Paris...exchange the little tales of their explosive sexy moments - ranging from their bisexual encounters with elegant ladies to the wild bangs with the rough and tough men...

Sherry Rehman, Pakistan's Ambassador to the United States

Lahore Cant:

Saira Mir, an attractive woman with big heavy boobs heard the door bell ringing. She reached the door. An official messenger from the court was there to deliver the court summons. She had already received a notice from some lawyer but she did not pay attention. Now it was delivered to her directly by the court's messenger. It was in regard to a demand for the recovery of damages and defamation proceedings, claimed as a result of the book, "My Sex Life in Paris" by Saira Mir. The court's messenger looked at her and could not help thinking, "this woman who wrote a sex story is really sexy".

Dubai, UAE:

Kiran Yusufzai, a tall, young pretty woman was busy working on her manuscripts. She had been doing research on the sex life of a high-profile lady she greatly admired, Benazir Bhutto, former Prime Minister of Pakistan. She had published an article, “Revelations and Latent Aspects of Benazir’s Private Life” on Allvoices.com. Now she was working on a book about Benazir.

Kiran, originally from Pakistan, currently lived in UAE. She was also engaged in documenting about some exceptional women from Pakistan and India who had sexually-libertine lifestyle. Sex and relationships was her main interest. She came across a book, My Sex Life in Paris written by a Pakistani woman Saira Mir. It was published on Booksie as an eBook. “I should write to the author of this book and appreciate her courage. I should also include her in my gallery of the women I am working on”, Kiran concluded.

She contacted the publisher, requesting the e-mail address of the author. The publisher, after taking permission from the author, had forwarded her e-mail address to Kiran.

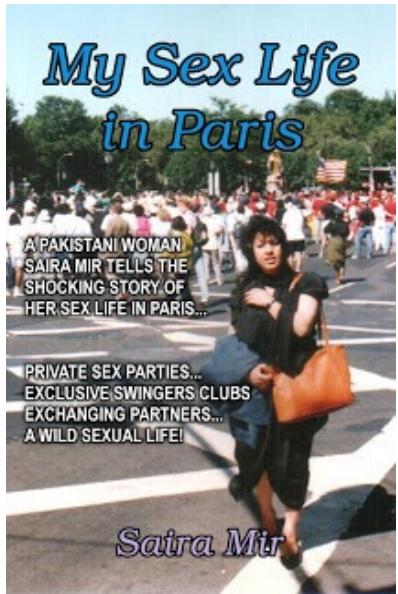

“Now I should start the communication with Saira”, Kiran came on the track...

Washington DC, Embassy of Pakistan:

Sherry Rehman, Pakistan’s Ambassador to the United States looked at her e-mail... She had just received an e-mail from her dear friend, Kiran. Both were close to each other since the time when Sherry was the Editor in Chief of The Herald, Karachi - and Kiran had joined her as a junior. They were also very close friends of Benazir Bhutto... Now Kiran had forwarded Saira Mir’s book to Sherry.

The book cover had a striking text:

A PAKISTANI WOMAN SAIRA MIR

HER SEX LIFE IN PARIS

PRIVATE SEX PARTIES...

EXCLUSIVE SWINGERS' CLUBS

RUFI

Paris, Boulevard Saint-Germain, 21 August 2013

It was a hot afternoon in August. A slim and tall man was walking down the boulevard... He was Rufi. As he passed by the metro station, he stopped on the sidewalk to chat with his friend Yaseen Khan, a painter. This spot is known traditionally where many Parisian artists display their work.

Every day, Yaseen Khan hangs up his little art exhibit on the grating, right in front of the metro stop.

With his charisma and discrete elegance, he has become a well known figure of the Latin Quarter. Apollinaire and Verlain are poetic muses who guide his brushes when he paints in the shadow of leafy trees near the Saint-Germain-des-Prés church... To passer-byes who stop and look, Yaseen whispers: "The world is a poem." And no one feels like saying the contrary... Yaseen Khan with his white outfit and Rufi in his full black-wear could be seen in a sharp contrast to each other but they have many things in common. If someone could hear their conversation, he could hear them reciting some poetic phrases...

But this man Rufi was more than someone indulgent in poeticism only - though he might be looking for some poetic justice in his quest... And what was his quest? He had been tracking-down some untold stories - stories that could provoke some very powerful people. He was on his way to unfold the darkest secrets of a political dynasty. Now this quest was a part of his existentialism. This could also jeopardize his own life. But he was not worried for that... "I am already dead. And now I am celebrating my death. Once you're dead, nothing can hurt you anymore, complete immunity!" He was living in that spirit.

Now the boulevard was getting more and more lively. Rufi moved on and after a few blocks, stepped into Café Old Navy where two investigative reporters were waiting for him. They could also be the officials from some research and investigation authority... Rufi joined them in a far-off corner table.

"Hello James Bond...", one of them called him.

"I am a new James Bond. No guns, no revolver. Just poetry and music - that's my tool box," Rufi responded.

UN INDIEN TRÈS INSPIRÉ

White spot of Boulevard Saint-Germain

When you're out of the world, you disturb the world

The two reporters Simon and Garfunkel were having orange juice. Rufi ordered an expresso.

“What’s new?” Simon began the conversation.

Rufi sipped his coffee, “I have discovered something very shocking. A high profile gathering is now arranged in Dubai. Sherry Rehman, recent Pakistani Ambassador to the United States, Bilawal Bhutto (son of Benazir Bhutto and Zardari) are participating - among many others... It’s a secret VIP sex party with swapping partners... This is already too much for Pakistan’s political scene. But it is much more than any usual sexual affairs. It crosses all the boundaries. It also includes the incest. I have got hold of evidences. And I might also get some video, though it’s difficult.”

“What evidences you have so far?” Garfunkel asked.

“I have the copies of e-mail communications sent by the man who is the co-organizer with Sherry Rehman for this VIP sex party. His name is Omar ..... Omar wanted to invite a new woman Saira to this party. So in his communications with Saira, everything is described explicitly. The party is at Benazir’s Villa-24 in Emirates Hills area in Dubai on 19, 20 and 21 August. Omar is originally from Morocco. He lives in Italy.

He has been providing his ‘intimate services’ to Benazir Bhutto and Sherry Rehman. And for this party, he is bringing with him 6 black men and 2 Caribbeans. He has also sent his photo to Saira through his e-mail.”

Simon said in a skeptical tone, “If you expose all this, the people on the other side can deny the very existence of this man Omar, as he is a no one. Perhaps it’s not even his real name. I am just putting forward a point that others will bring up.”

Rufi looked towards Simon, “Oh, Omar does not exist... I have the details of his flight to Dubai in his name and I also have the number of his car that he rented in Dubai in his name.”

“That goes for his existence,” Garfunkel agreed.

Rufi then produced 6 e-mail communications:

One of the e-mails from Omar clearly specified the date since when Benazir Bhutto started engaging him for sex. The other mail mentioned about Benazir’s incestuous activity with Bilawal that Omar witnessed in 2004

(when Bilawal should have been only 16-year old. And this could imply former head of state into an incestuous activity with a minor....) Simon quickly went through the text and commented, “Yes, this gives specifications - date, place, names...”

“And above all,” Rufi came up with another document, “This is not only Omar, a gigolo who asserts this. It’s also confirmed by a well-known British journalist who is working with Daily Mail, London. Here is the e-mail sent directly from her newspaper’s e-mail account. It clearly states not only about Benazir and Sherry Rehman’s sex parties but also about Benazir’s incestuous relations with Bilawal.”

Simon and Garfunkel both looked at this new document. They read it and looked astonished. “Yes, it’s from the official e-mail account of the newspaper,” Garfunkel said.

Rufi continued, “So on the one hand, we have Omar who has been a first-hand participant in these wild events and has witnessed these acts himself. On the other hand, we also have confirmation from an investigative journalist who has been very close to Bhutto family in UK.”

“So what you plan to do the next?” Simon asked.

“I am going to publish all of these communications in form of a book. And if one opposes to accept e-mail communications as the evidence, I cite a very clear-cut recent case where the e-mail communications stir the whole course of action. E-mail communications between US commander in Afghanistan General John Allen and Jill Kelley exposed their secret affair, which led to the resignation of CIA Director General Petraeus.

There were no photos or videos. Only the e-mail communications were exposed!

“Okay, we’ll analyze all this and get back to you,” the investigative reporters said.

“You know, I might have remained silent and would never talk about this kind of dark secrets of a political dynasty, if they have not ruined a whole nation with their high-end corruption. That’s what makes me so angry and committed! They must return at least half of the stolen assets back to Pakistan,” Rufi said firmly.

Rufi left the Café Old Navy. Both reporters remained there. They started to study the documents. The documents carried striking details. Some of these communications had the descriptions with such graphic details about what goes on in these secret VIP sex parties that no one could have ever imagined. Putting all these elements together, a sharp picture comes into light that would certainly reflect “one of the darkest secrets of modern times!” One of the reporters made a short phone call, and a car appeared outside the café.

Simon and Garfunkel both got into the car. After a short drive the car entered the parking lot of a building. It was an official building - the headquarters of a research and investigation department. They both were actually officials from a high authority... And Rufi apparently knew that. He was the one who gave them their nicknames of Simon and Garfunkel. He certainly had a working relation with them...

Saira Dear

I am glad that my guidance for using strapon in sex was helpful. I would also be more glad to practice it with you dear. I will try to find a way so that a visit could be arranged with you with all assurances of safety when I meet Aunty Sherry. I am just dying to show you my tricks. Somehow a woman can give more pleasure to another woman in a deep soulful way, is what I have learnt.

I attached the pictures of the studs (black men) that Rufi sent. Have you tasted any one of them? Any prior info about them would be appreciated. This is so incredible. I have had black sex only few times before, but would love to have a wild raging orgy with such men again. I really appreciate your open heartedness towards me being physical with Rufi. It takes a lady of a rare brand to be so generous.

I am highly indebted to Aunty Sherry Rehman. She showed me and opened up a whole world of sexuality for me. Sexual dimensions which I never thought existed enriched my life with her help. We started making around when I was at Herald. Initially it was a lesbian romp. But then I attended a few private parties with her and then I was introduced to a swinging lifestyle. She is very dominant but caring during sex. My plan was to arrange a meeting with you in either UAE or someplace outside your current confinement. You will experience true heights of wild love and passion. She taught me how to experiment everything and be with oneself's true inner feelings about sex. And she always has something new taboo to try, which is very special about her. I am certain your life will open a very new chapter once you have met her. We swingers have to look out for and protect each other.

Now about Benazir, the great lady... I must first say that please keep it to yourself. I trust you to keep it a secret because you are such a special woman and because of your open mindedness you will understand the complicated nature of this issue.

If I die and God asks me what were my life's greatest moments then I will happily confess that it was making love with Benazir. I am honoured and privileged to have done it. My only regret is that I only got the opportunity four times. Each and every occasion is burnt in my mind and soul. It would live forever with me as a cherished possession of my life. Aunty Sherry introduced me to Benazir, when she arranged a sex party in UK. Benazir was really without example, unique with no parallel. Later on in Dubai I was able to be with her two times more. I have attached a photo of mine with her, when we met during few of our last visits. I keep this photo as a momento on my mantle for all times to come. She gifted me some very top quality sex toys including a monkey rocker. One day I will take you for a ride on the same monkey rocker that I used with her. It will be a special gift from me to you. My efforts in writing about her are actually a tribute to her humanity. It's like a pilgrimage to one's most revered soul person or spot. I hope you understand.

I have mentioned very briefly to Rufi about arranging travel documents for you to move out of Pakistan. I will now think of a way so that when you move out you move away with your freedom. The other option which I will discuss with Aunty Sherry is to take you under diplomatic cover to USA or arrange for you to move to UAE. I can then take care of you here in UAE. If you have a plan please let me know so that I can discuss it with Aunty Sherry once I meet her.

With licks and kisses my dear.

Best Regards

Kiran

Hi Saira,

I stumbled upon your book "My Sex Life in Paris" while I was researching for one of my articles that I plan to get published by this winter. Sex, relationships along with religious & cultural control, by instituting taboos, is an area of my interest and research.

Let me first say that I admire your bravery and commend you on your honesty and fortitude to come forth with such an intimate aspect of your life. What struck me the most was your postscript "Power of the Truth". You are indeed a very brave lady.

I live in UAE and have been to Pakistan occasionally. It has become conservative with every passing day and I hope you are out of danger because of your disclosures. During my research in human sexuality, cultural norms, and through my own experiences and observations in UAE, I have learnt that the swinging lifestyle has been adapted by high class of Pakistani Diaspora.

I had earlier written about the transition and compartmentalization in the lives of some of the most prodigious women our country has produced, and who held and still hold top executive posts. I have seen a direct correlation between intelligence, ambition, intellectual acumen and how one exercises one's prowess of sexuality. Yours has been a unique perspective and if it's okay with you, I would like to exchange further info about this subject with you.

Best regards

Kiran

Hi Kiran

First of all, thanks for appreciating my book. Actually, I did not expect from any oriental woman understanding this subject. So I also admire your bravery to encourage my work.

You have read the story on Booksie. But it's also published on Smashwords, with photographs.

In the attachment, I am sending you an UPDATED VERSION in PDF that also has these interesting photographs. These photos are from our friends and social circle (to whom this facet of our life was completely unknown). They include Gulshan Grover, the famous bad man of Indian cinema, Aishwarya Rai, and world-renowned Hollywood filmmaker Menahem Golan... This can give you some idea of the atmosphere I lived in - apart from my behind-the-scene life...

If you like to use any inspiration or learning from my story into your research work, I would fully appreciate that. And you can exchange any further reflection on this subject.

Let's remain in contact.

Subject: Re: The Book Updated Version-PDF / Re: Hello Saira

Dear Saira,

Thank you very much for the updated book version. I have always felt that in our oriental cultures there is a duplicity when it comes to sexual permissiveness for females as compared to that of males. Men might indulge in hedonistic activities and that is brushed aside but women are never given the same privilege. I have also studied that when women try to exercise their right of sexuality, then societies with backward/ conservative/religious/tribal norms tend to take that as a direct attack on the so called value system of that particular society. Women who exercise sexual liberty are taken as changing the status quo of a patriarchal society.

The other aspect of my study has been about the swinging lifestyle of women in power and authority. I find it impressive that female libido discovers its way of expression whenever it finds an avenue of assertion. I had earlier written a short article about the great leader of our country Benazir Bhutto and few aspects of her private life when I visited Lahore.

<http://www.allvoices.com/contributed-news/7704623-revelations-and-latent-aspects-of-benazirs-private-life>

Now I am planning on publishing further about her and other brave ladies who dare to break societal taboos. I might include your story as a brave voice of feminism as well (if it's okay with you)

By the way if you don't mind me asking, was Gulshan Grover into swinging lifestyle?

With warm regards

Kiran

Dear Kiran

I read your response and the attached article (on allvoices.com) about Benazir Bhutto with full attention.

In regard to your current research work, I passionately admire your spirit. In the West, many women are dealing with these subjects. But on the Eastern side, it's remarkable that a woman is coming up with insight on these difficult and complex taboo subjects.

Your article on Benazir Bhutto... Some people or perhaps most will take it as you're trying to condemn her by pointing out her private life aspects - wearing short skirt... No, actually it's an admiration. And when she wears a veil "chadar" in public appearances, we cannot call it an artificial cover (or dhong). Because as you said that it was her way to show the respect to the society at large that she lived in. So I think this society in response, should also respect her choice in the private phase of her life. (Try to elaborate this point in your future work about her. It could be a strong argument in her favour). And if she used an expensive sex toy from Shiri Zin, well she was a human being with her own moments...

In your next work, you can use and refer to my book/story (including the pictures) in any way you like.

If you like, you can also meet some people (including the people from our social circles such as Javed Jabbar, his wife Shabnam and daughter Mehreen Jabbar who is now a well-known filmmaker). They have come and stayed with us in Paris. They don't know about my book. But you can tell them that you came to know about this book on your own (which is a fact). And the book has mentioned them as well. I can send you their phone number in Karachi, if you don't have it. (But then you have to give them the actual name of Rufi. Rufi and Maria were the nicknames that we used to give in these sex parties circles in Paris). If you visit Paris sometime, you can go and interview some club owners such as Alain who owned Triangle Club.

You have asked about Gulshan Grover if he was also engaged in swinging lifestyle?

No, not with us... But he tried to flirt with me very openly. He was staying in the hotel just close to our apartment, when he came to play a role in the film that Rufi was making on child labour titled "Desperate Connections". We have also screened this film during the 1997 Cannes Film Festival. Javed Jabbar has also coordinated with Rufi in the production of this film. He arranged his accommodation with their advertising company MNJ's General Manager in Lahore. Rufi shot many scenes of this film in Muridkey near Lahore - about the notorious murder of child activist Iqbal Masih. We made this film to show the other side of this issue in response to the negative propaganda against Pakistan at that time in regard to the child labour. That's why Javed Jabbar supported us.

Anyway, Gulshan Grover was in Paris to play a role in that film. Rufi was still in Pakistan just about completing his shooting and returning to Paris. Gulshan Grover always made sexy conversation with me. He emphasized that he was excited about me. But I did not respond to his advances. When Rufi was in Hollywood making the investigation and preparations for a film on Aimal Kansi (the Pakistani man who shot 2 CIA agents), Gulshan Grover was also there for an Indian film stars show. He invited Rufi on his birthday party where he also introduced him to Shah Rukh, Anu Malik and Juhi Chawla. At that time Gulshan Grover called me many times in Paris and said just so frankly that he wanted to have sex with me in his next visit to Paris. And I said, "Okay..." But this next time did not happen. I did not meet him again.

Perhaps you might think that I had sex with him when he was staying in the hotel near our apartment - and Rufi was absent. And I am keeping it a secret. No it's not a secret. OR should I keep a few things as secret? What do you think?...

All my warm regards

Dear Saira,

Yes, you are right I had to disclose only salient aspects of Benazir's life, because I realize that people are still not ready to fathom the depth of her incongruous life. Therefore, I decided to exclude mentioning the swinging and bisexual dimensions of her life. I had the chance of meeting her only thrice in UAE. She was a great lady, who was compelled to stave off a backward public mindset and opinion in Pakistan, while pursuing her life ambitions. But I am still not confident whether this is the right time to cover the marvelous life of this gem of a lady and provide the world with the complete mosaic of her beautiful life.

In UAE the swinging lifestyle has developed prominently over the last decade. Lebanon used to be the Paris of Middle East during the old days but now UAE in particular the resort areas of Dubai have come forth to take its place. Benazir once mentioned that sexual promiscuity was a barometer of a civilization's level of EQ health. I think Europe exceeds far better than USA in this regard. I normally consult with Dr Susan Block from USA who is an expert in human sexuality.

Thank you, but do you think that the Javed Jabbar family would be comfortable if I interview them about intimate details of their life? I plan to visit Paris before winter as part of my research about Benazir's book. I specially plan to visit Cap d'Agde and two libertine clubs that she used to frequent. Parts of your book have quotes very similar to hers. It's strange but love in life essentially has the same outcome.

Have you been to Cap d' Agde during your time in France? I feel that both you and Rufi have a very artistic mind. I had earlier read about Desperate Connections and will watch it for sure now. Do you plan on any art productions in the near future?

From the looks of it Gulshan Grover would have been a welcome inclusion in any party :) but it all comes down to mutual respect. I personally can't stand a man if there is even a little streak of misogyny in him. I am glad that you had your fair share of men.

As a result of my own experiences and observations I feel that people from South East Asia have a Herculean task in overcoming cultural barriers when they come face to face with our innate animalistic desires. There is conflict but some get through it. People who are artistic, intelligent, generous and full of life overcome these barriers and find peace with themselves and their new lifestyle. But some create compartments in their life. I don't want to judge people, or make any moralistic assumptions. I just want to understand the human mind from our part of the world. The Director of a top UAE consulting group is also Pakistani and has become a paragon of virtue during the last month of Ramadan, goes every weekend for Umrah but on Eid this Sunday, he is throwing a party where I have been invited. It will be held at one of the private Jumeirah resort quarters where everything goes. Again I don't want to judge people but I always find it fascinating how the human mind develops a capacity to adapt and absorb so many divergent concepts.

I personally think that every woman must have the right to choose her sexual preferences and exercise them with complete freedom. Unfortunately this is seen as an attack on the patriarchal hierarchy in our culture. You were lucky to have men who appreciated your sexuality and wanted to share love between yourself and others. Not everyone is that lucky.

Best Regards

KIRAN OPENS UP HER SWINGING LIFESTYLE

Dear Kiran

First of all, EID-GREETINGS to you...

Thanks for your suggestion. I have sent an e-mail to Dr. Susan Block asking her if she could do the review of my book. I have not received a response from her yet.

No, we have not been to Cap d'Agde. Rufi has been there before our marriage.

When you go to Paris, let me know the outcome of your research.

The subject of your research is very vast, profound and multi-dimensional. It requires passion, persistence and insights into human contradictions... And you seem to have all these qualities. I warmly wish you all the success in your work. If you like, you can contact Rufi in Paris. He might coordinate in many aspects. His e-mail is: rufi....@hotmail.com.

You can also meet Doctor Jill Bourdais. She is a consultant for couples' problems. I have met her, along with Rufi for consultation. And we have discussed with her about our swinging lifestyle.

You have mentioned that the swinging lifestyle is one of the aspects in Pakistan's high circles, and especially among some women in power and authority - and it's also developed in UAE in the last decade. Do you mind if I ask you, how close are your observations in this regard? Have you ever attended / visited (or whatever) these close-circuit sections of our society?

What you mentioned about Benazir's saying that "sexual promiscuity is a barometer of a civilization's level of EQ health" is very thought-provocative and enlightening. But our present-day societies are still far away from that kind of enlightenment.

If you have any more precise questions in regard to my experiences, I would be delighted to give you all the responses.

My warm regards

Dear Saira,

Thank you and Happy Eid to you as well. Wish you and your loved ones best of season's greetings.

I will take up your book subject with Dr Susan this fall. I would also get in touch with Rufi.

I was curious to know why you consulted Dr. Jill Bourdais. Did you consider your swinging as a problem?

For myself I have been a swinger for about nine years along with my boyfriend who is from Morocco. I come from a very conservative family but always found my conservative back ground to be claustrophobic. I rebelled when I was in college but never experimented. Once I found economic independence I started to be adventurous with my sex life. I had a brief stint with The Herald in Karachi, Pakistan where I developed an acquaintance with a lady there whom I consider my mentor. She helped me realize that when a woman realizes her sexual potency she takes the first step towards liberalizing herself from shackles that have been designed to keep us down. I really admire this lady as she was instrumental in introducing me to a swinging life style. After that I never looked back.

In UAE I have participated in a select few parties. The demographics vary but mostly there are Lebanese couples, expat French, British a few South East Asians and some from the local high class elites. I avoid the ones where Arab royalty are engaged, they still have a nomadic mindset. Swinging Pakistanis are very rare. In the last few years, I have only met two Pakistani couples. One couple is lead by the Director of a multinational group while the other couple is led by a lady who hosts a popular morning show on one of Pakistan's major networks (apart from my mentor who introduced me to Benazir). Most were swingers by choice. One of my key observations has been that while people from western cultures showed keen interest to swing with people from Eastern cultures or otherwise, (both men and women alike), women from Eastern cultures (including myself) have been partial towards men from Western cultures. Is that the case with you also?

Tonight will start with Eid celebrations and wild partying. This will continue throughout the week till next Saturday. One of the themes I am working upon and trying to comprehend is the "transition phase". My concept is that there is a swinger in every human being. Some simply allow it to appear from within while others suppress it. How does one make this transition and under what circumstances? How does one feel before and after? How does one cope with it? I plan to dwell on these questions and would like to know how you feel about them as well?

I plan to make a short list of questions that came to my mind when I was going through your book. I would send them to you once I am over the upcoming party fest. One thing that I want to ask you now is that how did you develop the courage to come out with this. I might never be so brave as to reveal my sex life publicly. But you found the strength to do so? Apart from the revealing honesty and truth what was your source of courage?

With warm regards

Kiran

Dear Kiran

I hope you had good Eid festivities.

I am happy to know that you have been also a swinger.

We met Dr. Jill Bourdais not because we considered our swinging lifestyle a problem. The swinging was not the problem. What happened that when I was in the final days of leaving Rufi, he suggested me to meet with Dr. Jill Bourdais. And during our discussion, among other points, the subject of our swinging lifestyle was also brought up. For you with Dr. Susan Broke, what's the line of your discussion?

I also want to tell you about an interesting development. Someone from Ahmadabad, Karim contacted me. He is associated with the media. And he has been making ad films. Now he is going to make his first feature-length film. He found my story an interesting subject for his film. I think if you do further work on my story during your visit in Paris, you can connect the outcome of that work with his film. Something like this that a woman writer and researcher is making further investigation on this subject and her research becomes very interesting for that filmmaker in India. A combination of real-facts lightly dramatized. If you like you can coordinate with him in the making of this film. I am going to forward his e-mail to you.

You have written about your observations that in swinging lifestyle, mostly Eastern women (including yourself) are partial towards Western men. If you mean by being partial towards Western men is being inclined towards Western men - I agree with you but emphasize on its related fact. That is because of the concern for keeping our confidentiality of this lifestyle. With Western men we feel being distant from our regular social circles. We have certain anonymity. While if we mix sexually so freely with our Eastern men, we fear that it might leak to our regular social circles. This factor might keep us away or at a distance from our Eastern men. I myself always felt that way. But the point is this that if we find some Indian or Pakistani couple in swingers' party. Then they will be as much keen in keeping everything confidential as we ourselves. By joining these parties they have become a part of our tribe. So I think we should not hesitate to mix up sexually with them. What do you think?

Your question about what other factors played some role for me to write this book?

The other factor is that I thought we should not consider just the present generations around us because of whom we have taboos as we might feel some latent obligations towards them. If we have some obligations to the present-day society, then we do have our obligations to the generations of tomorrow also. We should try to leave some imprints for the culture of distant horizons also. So I have written this book also for the man and woman of 50 or 100 years after us...

For your questions mentioned in your new e-mail, I am writing my responses here:

I think I was already liberal inside me. As you said that everyone has a swinger hidden inside his or her personality. With some it is liberated while other suppress.

Would I be liberated like this if I was in different circumstances and times?

I think, NO. If I was not with Rufi, I don't think I could be liberated up to that extent. But human contradictions are much more complex than our own assumptions about ourselves. Sometimes, what we predict about our reaction in a set of circumstances could be completely different from our reactions when that new circumstances and time knock us.

Jamila was from Morocco. I have not come across any Indian or Pakistani couple in these gatherings. But we had heard from some participants about Indian couples. They refer to Indians and Pakistanis same. Did I have sexual contact with women? I came in contact with that woman coincidentally. I think what happened was in the heat of the moment. I don't have lesbian or bisexual tendencies. But I don't know, it might develop or I might have somewhere hidden inside me. Sometimes Rufi liked that and when he was with a woman, he tries to put us in partial sexual contact... Sometimes I participated in this and sometimes not. What about you? Do you have this tendency or not? If you don't mind can I ask you - like for me, my highest score in a sex party has been 7 men, what has been your highest score so far?

My warm regards

KIRAN AND SAIRA CHAT ABOUT THEIR BISEXUAL ENCOUNTERS

Re: The Book Updated Version-PDF / Re: Hello Saira

TO: Saira Mir

Saturday, August 25, 2012 8:24 PM

Dear Saira,

I got a reply from Rufi. It was very honest and frank. I feel tentatively you had a lucky part in your past life to have a forthcoming person like him. Do you recall how Dr Jill Bourdais attended to your swinging issue(s)? With Dr. Susan Block my exchanges started about female sexuality and how much depth is in a female orgasm. She was a favourite scholar of my mentor and I was introduced to Dr Susan by her. Most of our current exchanges are about female squirting and how it empowers females with sexual dominance.

It's nice to see that your initiative is being recognized by filmmakers. I shall have a talk with Karim. However, I might not be able to share with him sensitive information since my visit to France will mostly cover the swinging life of Benazir Bhutto and I am already in talks with a publisher about the final thesis. But maybe the story from another discrete angle is possible.

About being partial towards western men, yes, anonymity is one aspect but in my case I have found men from the western hemisphere to be more imaginative in giving me orgasms. For example maybe 2 out of 10 indigenous men (20%) are proactive in cunnilingus, while almost 100% of western men, I have found are very proactive in this area and would always initiate cunnilingus and prefer it over fellatio. Yes, I don't mind mingling and actually prefer to have a swing with a desi couple. It's too nostalgic. Some of my best orgies have been with a desi couple. But understanding people are hard to find!

I really liked your approach about addressing a generation beyond the ages. I am sure you will be looked upon in history as the pioneers of a trend changer. It would really be remembered. But I also think that Pakistan had a liberal past. I mentioned to Rufi that during the 60s and 70s Pakistan had swinger clubs called Key-Clubs that were very active in Karachi and part of the acceptable social scene. It was during the dastardly Zia Islamization era that all human forms of sublime expression were tragically thrown in the bin.

I find your point about circumstantial contradictions and how they shape ones destiny very interesting. I shall dwell more on it. It's a very complex human paradox.

Your observations confirm my research that human sexuality is more matured in Spanish, French and Moroccan cultures. The demography changes but also reflects the richness of their corresponding civilizations. I hope one day we could proudly claim the same. And yes Pakistanis and Indians are racially the same. However, I make sure that I am not recognized as an Indian but hold my own unique Pakistani identity in any affair. I am ambivalent about lesbian tendencies but in case there is a threesome or more, I would always welcome a female touch. It enriches the whole game and brings new dimensions. Personally I know it, that a female feels the depth and nourishes the orgasm of another female much better than a male. I prefer men of course, but also like the female touch. Again I thank my mentor who introduced me to the pleasures of sapphic love. I would suggest if you don't mind, to also consider exploring that angle. That's a whole universe in itself! As for my highest score,:) I would say it was five. But it was simultaneous, not in series. Mostly in such cases I can experience the most intense orgasms with highest frequency. Mostly we have threesome, and in case of a lady we can expand it to foursome. The reason I keep it to a maximum of a fivesome or sixsome is because the rhythm is maintained and the males can keep their focus. Maybe it's a bit selfish but that's how I feel. I also like to dominate males by using strapons. That is something I have noticed that males like in UAE a lot.

I am working on some details about Cap d'Agde, and will confer with Rufi subsequently.

Subject: Re: URGENT: I hope everything is fine?

Dear Saira,

I hope you are doing fine. I had been on a short trip to Beirut and stopped at the Sharam Shiekh resort on the way back. I very well trust you dear, since you are a brave enough lady to talk about the truth so I have confidence that I can discuss my work with you and all relevant details. My project on Benazir is going on albeit on a slow pace. However, I am confident to compile everything together by winter publication season. I have contacted a few people in Europe and Lebanon and I might be able to get the copyright permission from her extended family in Lebanon. I hope to make a beautiful portrayal of a woman who found sexual liberalism in her private life.

I liked your description about the "double triangle". I have tried something similar on earlier occasions, and yes multiple orgasms are triggered by changing the style and keeping things new. With only few women doing the 69 has also been very pleasurable. It takes understanding and good communication to have and develop a good reciprocative 69 position, but once it's done and the woman you are doing it with responds to every slight change in your pressure , then it almost feels like you are performing cunnilingus on yourself. During a threesome with a couple last week we used a swing device. With the help of this contraption I was able to ride the hubby's penis while his wife (who is also my friend) would lick my clitoris in the 69 position. I would do the same to her. Needless to say all three of us had multiple explosive orgasms at the culmination of our orgy. By the way, are you a squirter? I have found that I squirt very heavily when I have both internal and external orgasms at the same time (Clitoral and G-spot stimulation). My favourite device is the rabbit vibrator. Do you use any device?

I read your mails to Karim. Now let me first give my perspective. From your book and brief memoir what I understand is that (you) a woman from a conservative country finds herself in the center of libertine Europe after marriage. She then proceeds to develop a healthy and permissive attitude towards sex, which is also aided by her liberal minded husband. Your life story has a positive and sound ebb and flow. However, I am still not able to find a logical link about why you left "Rufi", apart from the concern that he puts new things till the last moment. Or perhaps you were realistically concerned about future financial well being due to his procrastinating attitude. In either case I see that both of you left the company of each other. Both of you were open minded individuals who loved to share love and expand your sexual horizons. So the thing that is missing in your memoir or life story is closure to this.

Saira are you still open with your current relationship or not? If so then are you nostalgic about your life in Paris. How is your sex life unfolding in Lahore? In addition to my current project, I am also working in parallel on two others. One is about the Pakistani women and how adaptive they have become after decades of societal restrictions. I was able to interview Zahida Malik in Dubai last time for this book. Her screen name is Veena Malik. You must have heard about her. I am also going to include the perspectives of Nadia Khan who is a very active swinger in Dubai and works for a Pakistani Channel Geo shows as well. I plan to include your interview as part of series to the postamble of this.

My advice is that you should cherish the freedom that you had found. I really liked your point about addressing future generations of Pakistanis who would look back on your life as one of the pioneering women who obtained true liberty. I would like to ask you, I didn't see in your memoirs the mentioning of any societal restrictions that you faced in the past or currently. Did you intentionally omit that?

Also you should ask Karim or any other prospective filmmaker how they plan to project your persona and the character development in their production. It could make a lot of difference. Some people are critical in a negative way and that does not help. I shall talk with you in detail about the various sexual positions that you had mentioned in your book chapters. I would also like to know which ones gave you the best orgasms.

With best regards, Kiran

Subject: Re: I hope everything is fine?

Dear Saira,

That's great. You being a squirter means that you are in sync with your true self. I was not a squirter in the beginning but learnt how to demand the proper orgasmic stimuli in order to trigger this explosive surge of pleasure.

It's good if you have multiple partners who can satisfy your cravings in a generous way. However, I was disturbed about what you mentioned about Major Pervez. No means no in any complemental or consensual relationship. If you don't like anything no one has the right to force it upon you. The problem with most Pakistani men is that they think selfishly about their own egoistic sex pleasures and consider the pleasures of their women as a secondary status. If you could please tell me, why do you continue with him if he forces something upon you?

Subsequent to this question, I have another one. In your experience and observation, what are the two most salient differences between men in France (the non-desi ones) and the desi ones when it comes to sex. (Both physical and psychological aspects)

Saira, I don't want to sound as being interfering or instructional but from my own experience with anal sex, I would advise that if you have anal sex with a toy or a man or with a strapon, make sure that it's not inserted into the vagina again. Our vagina's have a very delicate balance of bacteria that keeps the PH level constant. It can be drastically altered due to introduction of germs from the anal cavity. I normally have an enema or bowel cleansing session before we have our bangs. That minimizes the risk of interactive germ mixing.

I must confess that I love anal sex now. I didn't like it in the beginning but my mentor at Herald taught me all the ropes and tricks.

But we have a select group of people with whom I am comfortable to have these sessions with. My best squirts are after DP (double penetration) sex with three or four men. You can also have dp sex with a woman who has a strapon and knows how to emulate the technique properly. During anal sex, vigorous stimulation of the clitoral area indirectly by a rabbit vibrator brings intense spasms of pleasure and in my case I always have squirting orgasms. As for sex toys I have another suggestion. Benazir once gifted me a monkey-rocker which she described as being a lonely woman's best friend. I couldn't agree more. You can have a preview of it here (<https://www.monkeyrocker.com/>). I would advise if you have one, it comes in very handy when you are lonely and want those special spots to be stimulated.

Honestly, I was very happy to see that you are blessed with appreciating the pleasure of female company. The first thing I thought when I read your book was to imagine how it would be to have a lesbian encounter with Saira, the writer of this book. I must confess I have had lesbian sex with only three Pakistani women so far. And each one of them was more explosive than any sex I have had with any male in my life. It's true only the female can appreciate the feminine side and senses. However, there is one thing that I try to avoid and that's the paradox of circumstantial confluence. It means that when there are less people who share a common approach or perspective (about sex, life or anything else), the greater are the chances of them meeting, and greater are the chances of them breaking apart.

To be blunt I had thought in my mind about having sex with you, but was afraid to ask about it first. I also think that a friendship should develop and then things could be taken ahead one step at a time. What do you think? Saira one more thing, maybe I didn't ask you about this before, but what is your opinion about having sex with black men? Do you have this fetish?

With Love and Warm Regards

Dearest Saira,

I hope you find true freedom. I can understand how complex it is back in Pakistan. I had to escape a tribal mindset and tribal people to find true freedom myself. How has your book been received in Pakistan? What is the feedback there?

It's nice that you enjoy DP because done properly it's a precursor to strong multiple orgasms. The real thing is the best, as one great lady once said, that what's better than a cock is two cocks and what's better than two is more cocks.

But the men must not be possessive and have a caring attitude. The same could be replicated with a woman and a strapon.

So with Desi men there is intimacy but not with western men. Do you talk or whisper while making love? Do you put on music during your love sessions? If you don't mind me asking do you like to indulge in dirty talking during love making? The Pakistani couple I swing with likes to keep things hot and spicy. I normally team up with the lady who then likes to perform dominatrix roles over their spouses. Desi men who are in swinging like to be done like that. Western men are not so open in that area, that's what I feel.

I have tasted inter-racial sex or black sex as it's said a couple of times. Logistically it's difficult to have real healthy black men here in UAE but in UK at my mentor's residence, I have had the opportunity to explore this. It certainly was explosive and very wild. I now have a collection of large black dildos to keep my memories of those times alive.

Saira, why didn't you mention about your adventures with black men in your book and about DP sex? Or perhaps you had it somewhere out of France at a resort may be? I think you should share the full spectrum of your experiences which would be very enriching for your readers.

I have a suggestion for your current circumstances, next time try a strapon on one of the men who are in your life and try dominating them sexually. You will feel rewarded and your situation will change in a very different way.

For the last two nights we have been going out with a Lebanese couple and Iranian couple. The orgy was superb. Three men and three women - with all imaginable positions and styles...

I am so glad that you don't mind dwelling into the realms of bisexuality. Do you have any plans of visiting Dubai in the near future? You could be part of our daisy chain.

Love, wet kisses, and Best Regards

Kiran

Yes, I love to have dirty talks during sex. Write me a full-dirty description of your recent encounter with Lebanese and Iranian couples. What is your favourite sex position? Do you make a lot of moaning?

Kiran, why don't you think about writing a book on your sex life. You could write this with a pen name. I am sure this will be spicy. I saw your pictures. I liked the 3rd one most. Saira dear,

From the maternal side I have Kalash roots and my father is from the Yusufzai clan. Our family is considered to be the naysayers in frontier and federal politics and were partly embraced and then pushed out during General Mushrraf's government. My escape from the conservative society hold is a long story. Perhaps some other time.

Saira, to be honest I always keep a professional distance from my subjects, on whom I do research but you are an exceptional case. I have never come across a person like you. Therefore, I made an exception. I also don't discuss my work among subjects with who I am interacting but I feel I have confidence and trust with you. Hence I am mentioning this; I got an email from Rufi. He sent me some pictures of his (black) friends along with a young girl. His proposal looked ravishingly tempting but I had my own apprehensions. I am normally a reclusive person and don't get interactive with someone so quickly. I just wanted to know if I can take your advice before I move ahead with "Rufi"?

As for as indulging in mutual fantasies, I always love the real thing. I am sure if we ever meet you will find it tantalizingly true. Saira I am making a short trip to Singapore. My company has allowed me to take a business cum annual vacation trip. I am transiting through Karachi. This will fall approximately around 21st Sep. I can take a short flight to Lahore as I would like to see the city again. If circumstances permit and if it's okay with you, perhaps we could meet up. What do you think?

I will be planning my trip to France afterwards in winter. One more thing my mentor from The Herald could be travelling to Pakistan following that week. She is posted in Washington DC and would be in Islamabad for a short while. If it's ok with you I can introduce you, she is a very powerful lady and would be able to make inroads for you. She is also a swinger and I am sure will be very forthcoming in making our time pleasurable. You will be surely surprised when you meet her.

I have been writing and maintaining a diary about my past encounters and making it a part of my current work. I shall send you some excerpts in due time.

I shall also send you some of my thoughts about my last swing with the couples. Have to leave now since I have to prepare for my trip in the next three days.

Love and kisses

Dearest Saira,

I got up early today to start my packing and finish quickly. I was getting worried about you and gladly saw your email. I didn't realize your situation was so much entwined with complications. I understand your view-point about Rifi, and respect that. Also I would like to help you in any way possible. I will try to get your point of view through discretely.

Yes, my mentor is Sherry Rehman. (How did you know, do you have any connections at Herald?). She is the current Ambassador in USA. She's a very sweet and beautiful lady. She also has a beauty of a mind and heart full of love. She helped me a lot at one time in my life when I was surrounded by many issues. I had earlier forwarded your book to her. I think she liked it. I will certainly discuss your case with her, I am sure she can get you out of this predicament in a safe way. She is very well connected. I will talk about you with her next time.

Let's get you out of this problem and then we can "enjoy our time together". But dear please take care of yourself. Don't let anyone take advantage of you. I can see how the typical Pakistani male mindset has enslaved you.

One more thing dear, I remember you mentioned that your book has started to help your condition and circumstances. How is that?

Love and warm regards

Dear Saira,

So glad you are doing fine and enjoying your time. The last week there was terrible news coming from Pakistan. There is too much violence. Please take care of yourself. First thing first, I got an email from Aunty Sherry mentioning about your work. I am forwarding it to you. Her email is sherryrehman@.....com. I know she will help you. Just wait a bit longer your freedom will be won. Another thing I was not able to discuss your situation with Rufi, since I have to find a way discretely as per your advice.

Now to your episode:

I was enthralled by your "action" with Ruby. Yummy!!!, the foursome 4-69 position is also my favourite. If only we could do it;). I will show you many variations that I have learnt. They will explode you with orgasm after orgasm. I also found cousin sex kinky. I have noticed in our culture, many taboos are so hot to explore and break!!! I didn't have a chance for explosive group sex in my trip, since there was less leisure time. But we plan a get together this week, and I am sure going to get my fair share of fucking. I am glad to know that you can still find good partners yet in the confines of a conservative society. Do live your life to its best potential. You are lucky to have young boys with stamina. They are hard to come by. But experience also counts.

Yes, I understand your situation. I know that we women with independent minds and souls have a very strong libido. As bisexuals we have extra dimensions in our capacity to satisfy. I also like a mix of partners, the best combo is when the ratio of male to female is 3:1. So the best one I have experienced is with two ladies and 6 men. Best men are the ones who like to be dominated but can also play dominant role if required. Saira have you ever tried a strapon on a man. I am going to do this exactly this week with our new party.

Have to go now dear, sweet dreams and orgasms with you.

Kiran,

I am travelling in the first week of Oct. Lets meet up during my stop. Has Urooj sent you the survey reports? I hope they give you enough coverage for your article.

I read Saira Mir's (My sex life in Paris); it reminded me of Mariyah Salih's (Harem Girl). Both are reminiscent of a good erotic narrative. However, Saira Mir's book needs some prose recalibration to bring a natural flow in it. (Are you editing it?) We will discuss assistance to her once we meet. Get her contact details and yes you can forward my email to her only.

I loved the snaps. Glad to know you and George had a good time. Will he be with you when we meet?

I have sent you the Smithsonian synopsis you asked about. Got it last week so it's the updated version... I am in New York now and leaving by the 30th. I will speak afterwards.

Saira Dear I hope you are fine. I didn't get a reply from you. Is everything okay? I wanted to tell you something if you don't mind dear. Rufi had earlier sent me some photos of his coloured (black) friends. I think they are absolute studs. Dear if I go to France, I plan to have a hot romp with Rufi and his friends. I just wanted to let you know, so there is no misunderstanding in future. I hope you don't mind?

I also wish to have your good and hot company. I feel those days to be very near. Is it possible for you to travel for short distances in Pakistan from Lahore, like to Islamabad? Or you are completely confined to Lahore?

Dear Kiran

Thanks a lot for giving me a guideline for performing with strapon. I would surely try all this.

It's difficult for me to travel to Islamabad. As I told you I am not a free woman anymore.

For your trip to France, along with the adventure with Rufi and his black friends... Sure have a dynamic time. I would always be more than happy whenever you have good sexy times... I wish you incredible sexual encounters during your visit to France. It reminds me my time having sex with black men. It was so wild. They will make you cry out with pleasure. Oh you lucky sexy Kiran!

How has been your sexual experience with Sherry Rehman? Is there something specific about her? She was your mentor in these aspects. So you must have something special with her.

And one thing (unless you want to keep it a secret), have you ever had some sex encounter with Benazir Bhutto? You don't have to tell me this if don't want. I am just curious.

All the best

Saira Dear,

I am glad that my guidance for using strapon in sex was helpful. I would also be more glad to practice it with you dear. I will try to find a way so that a visit could be arranged with you with all assurances of safety when I meet Aunty Sherry. I am just dying to show you my tricks. Somehow a women can give more pleasure to another women in a deep soulful way, is what I have learnt.

I attached the pictures of the studs (black men) that Rufi sent. Have you tasted any one of them? Any prior info about them would be appreciated. This is so incredible. I have had black sex only few times before, but would love to have a wild raging orgy with such men again. I really appreciate your open heartedness towards me being physical with Rufi. It takes a lady of a rare brand to be so generous.

I am highly indebted to Aunty Sherry Rehman. She showed me and opened up a whole world of sexuality for me. Sexual dimensions which I never thought existed - enriched my life with her help. We started making around when I was at Herald. Initially it was a lesbian romp. But then I attended a few private parties with her and then I was introduced to a swinging lifestyle. She is very dominant but caring during sex. My plan was to arrange a meeting with you in either UAE or someplace outside your current confinement. You will experience true heights of wild love and passion. She taught me how to experiment everything and be with oneself's true inner feelings about sex. And she always has something new taboo to try, which is very special about her. I am certain your life will open a very new chapter once you have met her. We swingers have to look out for and protect each other.

Now about Benazir, the great lady...I must first say that please keep it to yourself. I trust you to keep it a secret because you are such a special woman and because of your open mindedness you will understand the complicated nature of this issue. If I die and God asks me what were my life greatest achievements then I will happily confess that it was making love with Benazir Bhutto. I am honoured and privileged to have done it. My only regret is that I only got the opportunity four times. Each and every occasion is burnt in my mind and soul. It would live forever with me as a cherished possession of my life. Aunty Sherry introduced me to Benazir, when she arranged a sex party in UK. Benazir was really without example, unique with no parallel. Later on in Dubai I was able to be with her two times more. I have attached a photo of mine with her, when we met during few of our last visits. I keep this photo as a momento on my mantle for all times to come. She gifted me some very top quality sex toys including a monkey rocker. One day I will take you for a ride on the same monkey rocker that I used with her. It will be a special gift from me to you. My efforts in writing about her are actually a tribute to her humanity. It's like a pilgrimage to one's most revered soul person or spot. I hope you understand.

I have mentioned very briefly to Rufi about arranging travel documents for you to move out of Pakistan. I will now think of a way so that when you move out you move away with your freedom. The other option which I will discuss with Aunty Sherry is to take you under diplomatic cover to USA or arrange for you to move to UAE. I can then take care of you here in UAE. If you have a plan please let me know so that I can discuss it with Aunty once I meet her.

With licks and kisses my dear.

Best Regards

Kiran

Dear Ms. Saira Mir,

I hope you are doing fine. The book I received from Kiran was an interesting read. I understand that you had forwarded the electronic version to her. Since it's mentioned in the foreword that any copy of the e-book has to be purchased, therefore, I would like to know the link to purchase my own copy.

Your book is reminiscent of Catherine Millet's work, who incidentally happens to be a French art critic. Such autobiographical literature could be a sign of liberated times. I feel that this genre embodies and personifies a woman's myriad desires. Your narration is good and spontaneous. However, I would suggest you to have your prose revised to reflect a more ripe editorial style. You could then consider hard copy publication.

Is Rufi the same gentleman who appears on page 9 of your e-book? Are the names mentioned by you on page 35 real ones? I understand that while Rufi is a pseudonym, your name and others' are real. I also understand from Kiran that at your present location there are curbs on your movement that you would like to be removed. Kindly elaborate so that an amicable approach could be determined.

Dear Ms. Sherry Rehman

Thanks for your response and valuable insights on my book.

I completely agree with you that revising the prose would be a good step towards publishing a hard version.

My eBook is available at Smashwords (who published it) by specifying the book's name.

You can just go to Google and click the name of my book with Smashwords:

Rufi is the same person on page 9 in the book, and again on page 28 with myself & Gulshan Grover (Indian actor) and with Aishwarya Rai and Menahem Golan in the picture below.

Yes, the names on the page 35 are real. All the names, places and dates are accurate.

In regard to my current circumstances, Kiran will tell you precisely in details when she will meet you personally in a few days. Once you have discussed with her, then I will elaborate further with you. I am really thankful to you for expressing the concern.

À : Rufi (rufi...@hotmail.com)

Hello Mr Rufi

Thank you for your prompt reply. Yes, I feel your work "Desperate Connections" is a work of art and provides a perceptive depth about a very sad aspect of our life back home. I am based in UAE and had previously worked at Herald Karachi for some time. I am working on a quasi thesis book which entails concepts of sex, relationships and corresponding interludes with religious & cultural taboos. As such my work has focused on swinging lifestyles of the South East Asian Diaspora in general and specifically the Pakistani expat and high class community.

I was able to have a unique view and comparison after I read Saira's brief memoir about her swinging life in Paris in "My Sex Life in Paris". A part of my research covers Cap d'Agde (which Saira told me you have visited before). I wanted specific information about some of its clubs if possible. Additionally I would like to have your perspective as a male about how you happened to inculcate yourself towards a liberal and swinging life? I think it would be interesting to see this from both your and Saira's perspective.

Best Regards

Kiran

De : Rufi (rufi...@hotmail.com)

Envoyé : sam. 25/08/12 13:10

À : Kiran (Kiran@.....com)Hello Kiran

Working on the concept of sex and relationships covering the religious and cultural taboos is an excellent subject. And I will be happy to cooperate with you in this regard.

For Cap d'Agde, I would recommend two libertine clubs:

Le Glamour

Heliopolis, Quartier Naturist, 34300 Cap d' Agde

Chateau de Tredos
1 Blvd. du Soleil, 34300 Cap d' Agde

Furthermore, the clubs of Cap d' Agde are excellent. But they're a kind of "tourist attractions", created as the tourist attraction only. But Paris has that originality and history of this behind-the-scene culture that emerged in 1970s - after the 1968 revolts of women's awakening and young generation's protest against the establishment and established values.

You have asked how I happened to inculcate towards a liberal swinging life?

I think the first reason is that by nature I am a person who likes to explore new things and experiment the adventure. Everything else emerged from this underlying character and spirit of "exploration". Because if you lack the basic spirit and courage to explore new avenues, you would not dare for taking any bold step in any other aspects of life - whether it's some exceptional business venture, new hobby, working on a taboo subject or a swinging life...

So this was my first reason. The other reason was obviously sexual. I and Saira both could enjoy much more by being a part of swinging life - and then of course within discrete atmosphere.

I don't know how broad is the scope of your work? I could contribute in any creative or informative ways. During our adventures in swingers' clubs and sex parties, we did not see Pakistani or Indian couples from the local scene. But we came across some very distinguished persons from Pakistan's political lounge. Perhaps their names should not be included in a work. Because these people are from such high positions that this could create tremendous waves everywhere.

Let me know how in any other ways I could be helpful in your quest?

Right now I am trying to complete a book.

This book will explore a lot. It will answer many questions. And then consequently, many other questions will also rise-up when one would go through this book.

It's not a "success story". It's rather a love story of a lover who lost - for the love of his life-mate and for the love and passion of exploring new avenues.

Okay Kiran, good bye for now

Rufi

De : Kiran (Kiran@.....com)

Envoyé : sam. 25/08/12 17:44

À : Rufi (rufi...@hotmail.com)

Hi Mr. Rufi

Thank you for a very honest feedback. I appreciate your co-operation. One of the reason I wanted info about Cap d'Agde is because I am working on the life of a very high profile lady from Pakistan who used to frequent cap during her time in exile. My work included exploring private aspects of her life. Subsequent to that I wanted to visit few particular places, interview few people and will send you some information for cross checking if possible, once I receive it.

I liked your reply about transition towards a liberated life and I admire your truthfulness. Many souls from our part of the world don't have the wherewithal to accept and face the reality of their own generic reality and inherent desires.

Yes the 70s were a period of awakening. That's what I have found from my experience, and observations. A senior editor at Herald (I consider myself lucky that she is my mentor) told me that there used to be active key clubs (swinger clubs) in Karachi during that period. I just hope we could have a liberal society again in our midst.

I also exchange views with Dr Susan Block on this subject and according to her research males who are willing to share their female partners in the loving embrace of others normally possess higher than usual humanistic values. She has also developed a theory in conjunction with Christopher Ryan, that there is an evolutionary bias when males find their better half more attractive and are amorously stimulated while witnessing them engaging in sex. That has been a common denominator I have found from all the people I have been able to interview.

Yes, I know the elites of Pakistan's high class also savour the delicacy of swinging. I feel that lust and libido are directly proportional with power, authority and the exercise of the same becomes rampant when the possibility of plausible deniability increases. My current work includes exploring the life of a lady I greatly admire, on parallel lines.

I look forward to reading your book. I also sense a soul in search of answers with a very high EQ level, when I read about you.

I would stay in touch. Thanks for your time.

Music, at first I would precise that when I say I like this band, it does not mean that I like all or most of their songs. I might love some of their acts, while the other songs might not inspire me at all.

So the best thing I can do is to list a few songs by my favourite groups that I like the most. This will give you an insight into what inspires me. Also I would emphasize that some of the songs I appreciate are due to the lyrics and the message that is conveyed through (I focus deeply on lyrics in a song).

You know music is the source of all my energy. While I am working, it's the music in background that moves me. I was grown up with these beats.... I can talk for hours on the soul of these songs. If you listen to these music-beats on the Youtube - You will also listen to my voice with them...

HERE ARE MY FAVOURITES:

LED ZEPPELIN: Stairway To Heaven (There's a lady who's sure, all that glitters is gold. When she gets there she knows all the stores are closed. And she was buying her stairway to heaven. They're talking about the journey, hope and disillusion at the end).

STEVE MILLER BAND: Abracadabra (Just listen to this tonight!)

BEE GEES: Stayin Alive

MICHAEL JACKSON: Beat It (He's talking about the exploitation of Blacks in America: They kick you, don't wanna see your face. It doesn't matter who's right, just beat it and beat it).

EAGLES: Hotel California, One of These Nights

MIKE & THE MECHANICS: Silent Running (Don't believe the Church and everything they tell you. Believe me I am with the high command. He condemns the blind belief in the religious interpretations).

FUTURE WORLD ORCHESTRA: Miracles, Desire

There are also many songs that might not say something great, but their beats and rhythms can inspire you to have great feeling and great thoughts. They can empower you with some strange strength. That's the mystic I have discovered in music. Next time when you listen to the songs on Youtube, I suggest you should try to listen with the lyrics. It will give you a different kind of pleasure and enlightenment.

There is one more aspect, a comparative angle on Rock & Pop music and our Urdu poetry and songs.

Rock & Pop music contributed a lot to political and social awareness, while our Pakistani/Indian music focus mostly on romantic emotions only. Our poetry is full of only lovers' voices. What do you think?

NOW SOMETHING FOR OUR OWN SEXY ROCK:

Kiran, I have been playing all this music for you. Now please, can we come to our sex themes? Let's rock the other way.

I am putting some photographs in the attachments. Look at the 4 tough soldiers for your sexy welcome in France. They're in Rap Music.

Imagine they rock you - hard rock. Then I join as your Baba Cool... A new Kool and the Gang to Rock your Sexy Band... You'll moan and sing with us. Rock-Bang and Rock-bang...

Kiran, the fetish Queen Saba with me, the Baba Cool - and sexy soldiers to salute her...

Hi,

Thank you for your detailed email. You have good taste in music and I share many of the likes that you mentioned as my favourites as well. It only corroborates my findings that people with more permissive sexual attitudes harbour a high level of artistic appreciation.

I will come directly to the point. First thank you for your offer (for an adventure with you and your black friends), it's a tantalizing one but I have my apprehensions. All of you really look appetizing in the pictures. I might consider it, but I must say that you have been very upfront with your proposal. By the way how did you consider that I might be interested in Alexandra? I don't recall telling you anything about my orientation. I will call you first and then we can take things from there. Please understand I am a cautious stepper who treads slowly.

I wanted to ask something out of the blue. In one of your earlier emails you mentioned fondly that Saira was still a part of your life and you consider her to be in an integral spiritual union with you. That's one height of sublime love. She will always live in your memories and I like how both of you have moved ahead with your lives. May be some day we three could meet. Saira mentioned in her book that she is living in inconceivable conditions and her book is a way of her expression to find a way out of it. What are your thoughts about it?

I will be out of station from Thursday as I have an assignment abroad but will try to stay in touch.

Best Regards

Kiran

Dear Rufi,

I was travelling in the last two weeks and couldn't take the fantasy of the black gentlemen out of my mind. (Sorry for using the word black, there is no racist connotation intended here). Please don't think that I am a nymphomaniac, but I do like to keep my options and horizons as broad as possible. I understand your point of view. People with healthy outlooks on their own sexuality are very few and even rare are the people who are willing to share it.

I will confess that I am bisexual in nature and have had the good chance of practicing a rigorous libertine lifestyle with some admirable ladies. But I also like to do justice towards my heterosexual side in equal terms. You had mentioned about your four black friends. I am assuming that they are well gifted equipment and experience wise? No offense but I have to ask this. I hope your swinging circle follows some screening procedures for STD's?

Will they be favourable to reverse role play? or to accept a dominant female role during a possible fling?

I was out of station for the last week or so. Thank you I like open-minded men. I wanted to ask you two things. First, I am in touch with some influential people in Pakistan with whom I am trying to get help to Saira so that she can be removed from her current circumstances. But it looks like she is in real clutches.

Dear Kiran

For Saira, it's good to hear that you're in touch with some influential people in Pakistan.

If it's okay with you, can you please tell me who they are? I might know them too. Have you made any final plan to visit Paris? Once we meet, we can discuss this matter more precisely.

For the discrete rendezvous, it could be arranged in a private apartment OR if you prefer, in some swingers' club in Paris on one of their exclusive thématique nights. A high level of discretion is assured.

Kiran, I am dying to have sex with you - along with my friends...

Can you send me a picture of you? I will fancy about you tonight.

Dear Kiran, Eid greetings.

How are you Kiran? I don't know how to express... I have been really waiting for your e-mail - with all my sincere and profound thoughts... What's happening? With you I truly felt I have someone around very very precious.

I understand that having any man is not an issue for you. So in this regard, I cannot be someone special for you. But the kind of preciousness and value I have for you in my mind & spirit - no one else can have that!

*I thought of creating something meaningful with you and leave a mark behind - not necessarily related to sex (though the subject of sex could have its own power). I was thinking that we both make some socially-conscious little artistic film and present it in some film festival together. We could work out some subject when we meet. (Through film, we can say a lot indirectly & directly).*

I also regret why I did not meet you before in my life. We could have done a lot. Please don't just laugh on this feeling. Probably, you should be with someone in your life or not - but that does not affect things that are above everything else. Perhaps you got conscious that you never met me, and you have been very open and frank with me. So what? We are all unknown to each other. And then the respect, communication and mutual joy emerge...Mona, I really want to meet you. Please don't go away.

Come down to France. I want to see you. And I promise I will never disappoint you in any way!

Hi Ms Saira Mir

My name is Omar and I worked for Benazir Bhutto for a little while. So I visited your site here about your wild sexual encounters (<http://www.smashwords.com/profile/view/Saira>). I am Moroccan and I think I like your ideas. Can we speak on the phone or online I like open minded women so much. I suppose this is also your same page (<http://novastudiojournal.wordpress.com/2013/01/30/spotlight-where-is-saira-mir-now-after-having-an-explosive-life-in-paris-2/>). I like to know how and when you were related to Benazir Bhutto. Please don't think wrongly about my message, it is not in a negative way I just like to know women with open minds.

I hope you will reply.

Yours Sincerely

Omar

Now I live in Lahore. You wrote that you're Moroccan. Where do you live? And what you do?

I was not related to Benazir myself. But a woman in UAE who had some correspondence with me has revealed to me about Benazir and Sherry Rehman.

Now I don't have any more communication with her, because Sherry Rehman asked her to STOP.

You wrote that you have worked for Benazir. What did you do for her precisely?

The complete version of my eBook is attached.

Hi Saira

I am really so happy to see a woman like you with such a free open mind. Thank you for the book you are great to talk about your sex life in a book. I read it completely from first page to last page and I was amazed at your open and free approach to sex. I like that. I live in Italy but I travel between London, Dubai and Florence. I also visited France sometimes. I am self employed and expert in Tantric ways of life for women.

It is okay, I can get you to meet Sherry Rehman, I am meeting her on 19 August after two weeks. She has the best sex parties without any limits, you will really enjoy them. Can I talk with you please?

I worked for Benazir Bhutto for three and half years, till her tragic assassination. She was very open and free minded. After that I continued to work for Sherry Rehman. I have very good references. I am also good friend with Bilawal Bhutto who is the chairman of Pakistan People Party that was ruling before. If you are in Lahore I can give you reference of Shehla Raza. I am sharing with you this because you are so much open minded person in your book. So I hope you will also trust me. I can feel that you want to have more erotica in your life and I can provide you with that, in safe place and safe way with very important and responsible people.

I hope you don't take my direct and open way of talk negatively. I can assure you I am healthy with very good physique and experience. If we talk I can give you my reference in Pakistan who will confirm about me. We are having a VIP party after two weeks and I will love if you can attend it. I will introduce you to so many people who will make your life more liberal as you mention in your book.

I hope you don't mind me writing such mail to you.

Yours sincerely

Omar

Saira thanks for your understanding. I was afraid that you will be cross with me for such direct approach. The party is at one of the private Villas of Benazir in Dubai. Sherry Rehman and Bilawal will also be there.

The flight time from Karachi to Dubai and the Villa will be under three hours. I will really suggest if you can find time then agree to that schedule, I will make all arrangements.

Shehla Raza is very close friend of Sherry Rehman and in past of Benazir. I don't remember exactly but she is some important minister in government like Sherry Rehman. I think she lives in Lahore and you can check with her about me. She is also very friendly with women and with writers like you. Shehla Raza will probably be attending the party. It is not confirm yet. If we can speak on the phone I can explain everything in detail.

Tantric ways are the best codified ways of giving women best orgasms. I have over 17 years experience in this field. I can assure to you that all your fantasies and desires will be fulfilled, in a safe and responsible way. I feel you are really beautiful lady who will like to experience many new things. I am attaching my pic. I hope you like it. Looking forward to a new experience...

Omar dear

Thanks for inviting me to such an interesting libertine party.

I think I should tell you that now in Lahore, I don't have a "free life" or the freedom like I had when I was in Paris. I am in a web, surrounded by 3 men (with one of them I also have a marriage-knot).

They all three have sex with me, sometimes separately and sometimes together at the same time (but it's ok).

I don't have access to telephone communication. If I get a cell. phone secretly, it will be definitely discovered, and then I will lose this possibility of e-mail communication also. I have taken your tel. no. because perhaps I can call you from a female neighbour's phone. But it's not sure.

You might suggest me to leave this situation. Well, I am not a prisoner in the physical sense. There are circumstances around me that are complicated. Yes, I can escape but that's not the solution. I will be legally entitled to the property and assets after the man (with whom I have a marriage-knot). And I don't want to lose it. So there is no point in leaving empty-handed. They have had sex with me so long. So now why I should be the loser!

We can still communicate through e-mail, if you like.

You said that you're an expert in giving orgasms to women. That's really exciting.

Tell me one thing frankly. Apparently you had your sexual encounters with Benazir also...

How was with her? How many times maximum you gave her the orgasms in one session? What was something special with her?

And how it goes with Sherry Rehman? Perhaps you can give some descriptions about your sexual encounters with these 2 ladies. (I like erotic descriptions).

About me, I can include something special for you that was not included in my book.

In the attachment, it's a picture of 4 black men. Look at them. They're like rough-and-tough horses.

They always gave me multiple orgasms (that's why I asked you about your expertise in giving orgasms to women).

With these 4 black men, I had most of the times "full-night sessions".

In those nights, two of them on the left side gave me 4 shots each, and the other two gave me 3 shots each. So in one night I got 14 shots altogether. They were little rough in sex but I liked it.

After one series of shots, they sucked my big boobs, non-stop for more than an hour until they're aroused again to fuck me again. While two of them are sucking my boobs from each side, the third one is fucking me, and the fourth one is giving me deep mouth-to-mouth kissing...

And I am having a 4-sided pleasure - by 4 different men enjoying me...

I still miss those full night wild sex with these studs.

I had sex only with one Moroccan man, Noori.

He had something different during sex.

Each time, after sex, he used a sex toy inside me for more than an hour. And then he gave me the 2nd shot.

But he has used sex toy a lot, a lot. He loved to bang me with sex toy.

Now let's see some descriptions of your sexual encounters (with Benazir and Sherry Rehman)...

All the best

Saira

Dear Saira

You are welcome dear. Thank you for sharing your intimate moments with me, and thank you for trusting me. I read in your book about your personal life in Lahore but now it is clear. If you want I can speak with Shehla Raza, she can be assist to you in your legal issues. I can understand that you don't want to damage your position, with your sex partners and all the property asset issue, I can understand that. So will you be able to plan to make a day or two trip secretly after two weeks, will it be possible? I will keep a slot for you at the party. When you get a number in safe place please tell me and I will call you. Please note I will explain below this party will be so nice.

Saira, I normally don't talk about my clients, it is not my way of things but because you tell me openly about your personal life and are so open free minded, so I will share with you only. I am professional in my field and I am proud of it so when I give a woman a pleasure like nothing before I feel I have a mission accomplished. You have sex with three men at the same time that is beautiful, so you will understand what I will tell you. Now I provide services to Sherry Rehman and Shehla Raza who are my important customers in Pakistan. If you have chance to talk to Shehla you can ask about me. I was also providing services to Benazir Bhutto. I met her first time on 23rd Aug 2003, I will always remember that. It was in London and she booked a session with me for the whole night. (Saira I know you understand this fact that every woman has the right to do for her life as she likes). So I gave her full tantric massage and manual orgasm. I really loved Benazir as a woman, she was very active sexually and I had to give her both anal and vaginal sex after massage. She was also actually bisexual so she was happy doing sex with both man and woman. (Sherry Rehman is also bi-sexual, I will explain later).

I don't want to brag about me but I was able to give Benazir many orgasms in one session. I have a good foreplay routine, I make full body massage with aromatic oils to make the body full of tantric energy and remove all kinks from muscles and body and then I would give good licking on her anus and vaginal lips. Then I would do special attention on the clitoris to make sure she gets two to three orgasms by licking. Normally with other women I would then start oral and then go inside the vagina but Benazir was superb in sucking and would give oral to the best, that's why I liked her so much. I would then give her sex in the anus but I lubed it before by fingering with lube during massage. She loved anal sex so much. She would ride in the cowgirl position and I would give her massage on clitoris while giving her anal sex. She would squirt two three times like this. For her age she was in good sexual health because I see only woman in young age squirt. (Sherry squirts even more, but I will tell about that later). After about two to three more orgasms from anal I will then take Benazir in different position some time doggy style some time half moon style, we try all different positions. She wanted more orgasm from anal actually. After that I give her the normal vaginal sex. Oh one thing she was very hygienic in something like she will use swipes to rinse my cock before she give oral or after anal going for vaginal. But other times she will do so many things wild during group sex (I will explain later). So after anal I will give her standard vaginal sex, she will orgasm one or two more times and then she will suck me clean dry. In our first encounter she did not suck me but just told me to cum outside but after when she checked for herself my medical record and she asked her family doctor to check me, she then routinely sucked me dry. Sometime she used facial as face wrap for cosmetic aromatic purpose. So our first encounter was very standard maybe I gave her (3+3+2) around 8 orgasms. Maybe she liked me so she asked me to come to Dubai after some time. I started regular with her in start of 2004 in Dubai, sometimes we go to London, sometimes to some places in France. So we had good time.

In Dubai I also started to give service to Sherry Rehman, who is also bisexual and we will have group Sex. First time in Dubai with Benazir it was group with me and another masseur of Benazir and another young person. It was great sex. I will normally give her sex in anus while George, the other guy will give her vaginal sex and the third person Jason Khan will give her oral in the mouth. It was wild side of her I found for first time. Jason and George will change places after she has orgasm, but we will continue to give both anal/vaginal and oral to her at the same time. It was standard sex practice with her. Saira I know you can understand because you have sex with three men already, then you want even more wild sex after that. You ask what was special with her. Benazir was special that she loved so many cocks, sometimes she goes for double anal, double vaginal and sometimes fourth man was involved, but not always. When there was a party and she wanted to prove that she could do more wild sex than anyone else - sometimes in total 11 men were in sex with her turn by turn. I really really miss her.

Then we have group sex with Sherry who was equal or even more wild than Bibi. Sherry also likes dirty sex. Normally if it was me with Benazir and Sherry, only then she will use strapon (It is like toy dick that you mentioned in your book, you also call it "player" in your book). So I will give anal to Bibi and Sherry will use strapon for giving vaginal. Then Bibi will use strapon to give double penetration to Sherry. Sometime Bibi will use different type of starpon on me to give anus sex to me while I give anus sex to Sherry. We will try all different type of combinations. In group sex with more men, it will become even more wild with so many combinations.

I tell you Saira if you just come to this one party you will see all of this and can experience for yourself. There will not be black men but I can tell you that I am well developed and also George my friend (I don't want to brag). Sherry will also arrange for other hot and wild games and sex competitions, it will be very good and new experience for you. You must try to have at least a look at it.

I have sex with Shehla Raza also, and other women friends of her and Sherry but the best is always with Sherry. She is thin and petite so I and the other men lift her up between us standing, and give her sex in anus and vagina at the same time. She also likes to have oral at same time but in different positions. I heard that in this party she wants to have sex like anything and she told me to arrange for enough men so that she can have four to five in every hole. So you can see how wild, the party is going to be.

There are so many other things about these great ladies, so many dark sex styles that I cannot write about them, I can tell you when we have opportunity to speak. I feel good about women from Pakistan. The women from there I think are so much wild from inside that the sex power explodes in sex parties. One more thing I will tell you there will be swingers and swappers in the party, some related people also so the wildness of the party orgy will be breaking the roof.

I look forward to discuss the plan for your visit.

Sincerely

Omar

(If I offend you by my explicit description above, I am sorry. Actually, I did not write all the dark sex secrets but I can explain when we talk.)

Dear I am trying to convince the men around me that we come to Dubai - and then I myself join the party and go back to them. They might understand and agree. I have to assure them that I am not going to slip out from their control! By the way, the party is in which villa of Benazir, the villa in Emirates Hills or the villa near Sheikh Zahid Road? (Close to Emirates Hills' villa, probably no hotels are there for them to stay...)

Omar Dear I fully understand that this is not you but Sherry decides about the men coming to the party.

And I also understand that Sherry avoids the men from Pakistan and India (obviously for confidentiality purpose).

In Paris, we always kept this aspect of our life away from the men from India and Pakistan - just to keep our confidentiality, not for any prejudice. Because with foreigners, we can remain anonymous.

Dear about you, I don't need any references.

But these men around me cannot let me go to any gathering alone because they don't want to give me the opportunity of making MY OWN useful contacts. Anyway I am trying to make it possible for me to come to your party. Give me a few days, and I will let you know the possibility.

By the way, will Bilawal also participate in this party, I mean in this sex party?

Because I would reall like to have sex with him - in Dubai or Pakistan wherever.

Dear Saira I am happy to see you make decision to come to our sex party. I was feeling from before that you will change your mind. Yes, Bilawal is coming to this party surely.

Dear don't worry about anything. I will talk with Bilawal or Shehla to contact you in Lahore to assure you and your partners. The sex party is in the Villa No. 24 in front of the Montgomery Golf Course. It is very safe place with security and privacy so don't worry, you can enjoy your time to the fullest without any problem. It is big villa, if you come I will arrange for you to stay there but I cannot say the same for your male partners, maybe or maybe not. I can confirm after two days. But please make arrangement for them in hotel in case it is not possible. Saira dear, now, we are a total of 14 men, including me and Bilawal so it is more than 12 men. I can promise you each one will give you much much more than two shots :)

There will be only three women. If you come and Shehla comes, it will be five. So for 5 women maximum, there will be 14 men. I promise you, there will be continuous sex without break. For the first day I can say maybe only a few men will be free because normally Sherry takes all the dicks on the first day but I promise you will have at least three to four men for you first time. But in time we will make arrangement for you to have all 14 men at the same time. Imagine all your holes filled up with strong dicks giving you orgasm and more strong orgasm. When one dick is finished there are two more to go in that place, you will have so many orgasm for the whole day. Only breaks are for sleeping or to go to rest room.

Now we have some rules... All the men are tested for any STD, so we are full clear by medical checkup. Now till 19 Aug we will be free from any sex activity so from that day we will be all ready to explode. Saira I must tell you that normally the women in our group have sex without condoms bare back sex. If you want we have resident doctor who can put IUD for protection on you. Also if you decide we will use condoms.

All women in our group are bisexual so you can enjoy with very good combinations. We also have mechanical machines for fantastic orgasms. If you prefer anything special please tell me I can arrange it in a week. So if you like people to watch you, we have that setup like a circle stage which goes in circle for all to see your sex practice.

Dear Saira I promise you will have so many orgasms like you never had before in your life, so many sex games and wild wild sex. Just tell me the date of your flight and I will pick you up from the airport. One more thing, please tell me if you have any allergy to any type of lubricant. We use water base lubricants.

Sincerely

Omar

OMAR REVEALS ABOUT BILAWAL & SHERRY REHMAN'S ROLE PLAY IN SEX PARTY

From: Omar .... <omar.....@.....com>

Wow 20 men, Saira you are super. Even Bibi who was a sex master did only 12 to 14 men in one session. You will be an awesome addition to our group. But dear this time we have 14 men only. But they will match your sex practice. All of us can give you multiple shots for many hours.

If you like BDSM practice we have all things ready for it. We have kinky leather uniform and suits which you can select with your choice. We will not do anything painful. Saira just remember the woman decides what happens in our party, so you will set the limit of anything. When you say stop, then everything stops, so it's in your full control. So don't worry about that or anything. Before start and when we meet in Bibi's villa, we have discussion about what you like what your fantasy in detail and then we do like that.

With Bibi and Sherry we did many role plays, bdsm, fantasy, kinky and dirty sex style. Nothing was the limit. Saira when you come to our party you will see for yourself and enjoy the best sex in the world. Sherry loves dirty sex, she has so many sex styles that even shocks me. She does not do 20 men like you, only 14 men but she will do anal sex with strapon with all the men in the party.

(I think she will also use strapon on Bilawal this time).

Shehla has bigger boobs than Sherry, but she is not much sex expert like Sherry but she is still good.

I promise you that both I and Bilawal will have sex with you, also Sherry and Shehla will give you awesome sex practice. If you like anything or anyone during party, you can tell and it will be continued for the whole party time. There will be many sex games. If you want any new sex game from your eroticism, tell me and we will add it. I am happy dear Saira that you are coming, I promise you the best sex party of your life.

Sincerely

Omar

SAIRA PROBES OMAR ABOUT BILAWAL BHUTTO'S SEXUAL PRACTICE AND INCEST...

From: Saira Mir <sairamir90@....com>
To: Omar .... <omar.....@....com>
Sent: Saturday, August 10, 2013 5:58 PM
Subject: Re: Current Phase

Omar dear, when you'll be reaching Dubai?

Trantic treatment from you... I am curious about it. What do you mean by "sex games" specifically?

You said there are 6 black men and 2 Caribbean men (your squad), Bilawal and you. Who're the other 4 men?

Are they locals from UAE or coming from abroad along with your special "sex squad"?

Is there anything special with Bilawal in sex? How long you have known him? You said he grew up as stud sexually. What's mean by this? Is this his first sex party or since how long he has been experiencing all this?

I have also heard about "incest" in Benazir's life. Is it like this?

If Bilawal has some particular fantasy with woman, I should know it. I can let him enjoy my experience and practice in cowgirl position. When riding over him, I will shake my ass such a way "in circles... round-and-round", he will go mad. I have never used strapon on any man. But if Bilawal likes it (because you said that Sherry will use strapon on him), I don't mind playing with him like this.

So, like Sherry, I will also fuck Bilawal's ass with a sex toy attached to my belt - after he's fucked me first. And while I am fucking Bilawal's ass, YOU should fuck my ass. For this session I will have a special "requirement". I will also need a two-sided sex toy (two-sided player dick). After Bilawal has fucked me, I will put one side of this sex toy inside my pussy, and push the other side in Bilawal's ass - and then give him the heavy strokes, so when fucking his ass, my pussy is also having pleasure. And at the same time YOU should be fucking my ass.

Please confirm if this session is possible. Because this is my particular plan that I have made for this upcoming sex party.

All of my best for all of you.

Saira

Subject: Re: Current Phase

Saira my dear I love your dirty mind. You make me remember Benazir and her sex practices. My flight will reach Dubai on 17 Aug next Saturday. It's good if you can also come on the same day.

We have all sex toys in Benazir Villa. Even machines of all type to give you best sex practice. We have many double dildos for all sex actions you want. So Saira if you come on 17, we can talk about all you want and what you like. We can even have our own time to experiment with each other. On 17, we will be 8 men. My dear Saira I can't wait to see you. I know you are a very wild woman. But on 17 we can give you only manual orgasm because we have to keep our juices in store. Sherry loves bukkake on the 1st day so we must be full. So on 17 we can give you all sex but without cumming.

When Sherry comes we will have sex games of many types, fun games full of sex. There will be sucking, licking, fucking competition and games like guess the cock, squirting games, fuck fest pocker, rim job race. Last time Sherry did the holespam race, you will love it. My friend George and Bilawal and Jason Khan who is the cousin of Bilawal will be here on 19. We have two Moroccans Ahmed and Khalid from local group but they are very good and practicing so you don't worry. You can trust about your safety, all these people we know are trust-worthy.

I cannot promise about your strapon action with Bilawal. I think he will only do it with Sherry but let us see. He is getting more open with time so maybe. I know him since 2004 when I started my service with Benazir. Saira, to your question about incest... I think you are open-minded person and know that all adults can have sex with each other if willing to do so.

Incest in Benazir's family is very complicated issue. Is it a problem with you? I will explain when we meet. Don't misunderstand Bilawal he is a very good person. This will be fourth sex party we are having with him. He likes mature women. I mean to say he has very good sex education and practice from his past so he knows how to fuck a woman completely. He won the holespam race last time with Sherry. You are wild and experienced woman so you will be good with him.

We have pussy and boobs pump and massage machine. We can use it for you for giving constant action. So don't worry about forgetting any spot on your body. My dear just come as quickly you can to Dubai and you will have best fun of your life. We will also have good fun with you.

Sincerely

Omar

I will try to reach Dubai on 17. I will confirm you shortly.

No, "incest" is not a problem with me? I full agree with you that all adults can have sex with each other if willing to do so. I was just curious about Bilawal. Because I think sexual practice within incest makes one more wild in sex. Bilawal, Jason, Benazir, all have wild sexual practices. So it could have emerged from their sexual experiences in the incest... That was my question. I did not experience any incest myself but I can understand its influence. You know I also want to understand sex and unusual sexual practices, for my own understanding of human nature. You have been close to Benazir, Jason and Bilawal, so perhaps you can enlighten me about what has influenced them.

You said that if I can come on 17, you 8 men can have sex with me but without cumming. That's fine. But can you hold on yourself, having sex with me, and still not cumming. You can also give me manual orgasms on 17. But I would still want dick-strokes (no matter even if you people don't cum). But I need dick-strokes. Please confirm this - because if I come on 17th, this will be only because of my interest in this side-session.

Also if you can give me some enlightenment about incest influences on Benazir and Bilawal...

Saira

OMAR MENTIONS ABOUT THE INCEST IN BENAZIR'S FAMILY

From: Omar .... <omar.....@.....com>
To: Saira Mir <sairamir90@.....com>
Sent: Monday, August 12, 2013 5:57 PM
Subject: Re: Current Phase

Saira my dear I am happy that you are open-minded woman. I really can't wait to see you. You are almost like Bibi and Sherry. I promise after this sex party we will make another new sex party only for you. First we have rule that before one week from sex party no cumming. Please understand Sherry wants bukkake on the first day with full cum-blasting so we must stick to this rule. I promise that we will give you dry sex with lube but without cumming. Yes, we have very good stamina after so much practice :)

We will also use dildo machine to keep you high and we will lick and suck your pussy to keep you cumming again and again I promise you Saira dear. So don't worry and please come here on 17th and we will give you the sex of your life. I can't wait to work on you with full energy. I really promise to make this session very special for you.

Yes dear you are correct about incest makes people go more wild in sex. This is what I see with Benazir family. It is like tradition or custom in their family as I have seen it - among many strange things...

It is not simple. Bilawal got good sex practice from his mom but in different way than what you think. You see maybe you can understand, but first time I saw Benazir sucking Bilawal's cock in 2004. I thought then that maybe Bilawal was some another young stud like me. You see Benazir always liked young boys. But then Jason Khan (her nephew) told me that Bilawal was actually Benazir's own son. Actually, I tell you every person has definition of sex, Benazir did not take sucking cock as sex, she was very advance in her level of sex understanding so when I saw it I thought of it in different way. Jason Khan is cousin of Bilawal and he fucked Benazir more often. Out of three sex party I see only one time Bilawal make unusual practice with his mom. Many times he was doing with his care taker nurse with Benazir's supervision. Sometimes they do 69, but not sex you see. Bilawal is with good stamina and good teaching from his mom. Benazir was a member of one mama love club where Bilawal got good chance of fucking three women together, then he tries with Jason on his mom. If you like unusual sex practice, my dear Saira I can arrange it also. Sherry also loves unusual sex practice. You will love her.

Bilawal is not so big as we are and the black guys but he is very good in licking and sucking and stamina. His cock is not cut because his mom did not allow to cut it for circumcise tradition. Saira the other men and blacks are cut. I hope you have no problem with cut or uncut cock. I am also uncut. Saira I am going to talk with Bilawal and Sherry on 15 to finalize everything. Please tell me your flight detail and if you have any more request. Saira dear can you send me one new photo of yours so I can send it to Bilawal and Sherry.

Lots of love

Omar

Hi sexy

I am longing to be played by you and your sex squad. And I will need "massage" from your hands, not by the machine.

Sexual encounters between Benazir and Bilawal... Real sexy thrill!

So are you saying that Benazir only sucked Bilawal's cock or did you also see them having full intercourse in one of three sex parties? where you saw Bilawal making unusual practice with his mom? What did that unusual practice include?

Also in Mama Love Club, after going through with three women, Bilawal tried with Jason on his mom... So did Bilawal fuck Benazir along with Jason?

I don't care for cut or uncut cocks.

All of my best

OMAR GOES MORE PRECISE ABOUT THE INCEST IN BENAZIR'S FAMILY

My sexy Saira you look so hot in white dress. I can't wait to see you naked and give you my full sex practice. Don't worry my dear we will give you massage everywhere in anyway and all position you like.

No Benazir did not only suck Bilawal's cock. Cock sucking was like normal daily routine but she allowed him to fuck her in anus and mouth when sex party was there. I think not in vagina. Only one time I seen Bilawal fucked Benazir in all holes one by one. Other time he fucked only in anus and mouth.

In mama club Benazir want for Bilawal to get good sex practice so he fuck all women in all holes one by one he is with very good stamina then he give Benazir anal sex practice and Jason (her nephew) give sex in vagina. It was double penetration then I give sex in her mouth little time then another woman of Bilawal come to my place and Benazir lick her pussy. Then brother of Jason come to her place and give sex in mouth. Then Jason and brother will change place and all time Bilawal was fucking Benazir in the anus.

We had many different positions for triple sex that we did time by time, and then when Jason and his brother did cumming, then Benazir took Bilawal's cock in mouth with full sucking power and then before cumming put his shots outside to show how far he could shoot. She always says to him, "good spunk dear".

So Bilawal got very good training and practice for sex from Benazir. When you are here my dear Saira we can play all same games with you.

Bilawal will fuck you after fucking Sherry, and when he is not available, I and all other men will fuck you in all your holes with massage and sucking of your boobs. Saira please come as quickly as you can. I can't wait.

Lots of love my sexy Saira

And when I reach Dubai, your party has already started, and you're stuck there and I can't find you, what should I do? If you want, I will try to speak with you on Messenger, tonight or as soon as I get a chance but I came on .... messenger even earlier).

Now in about an hour, we are leaving for our planned journey. But before coming to Dubai, we're going to Soltanat of Oman (Muscat). There we have some special program (with some Sheikh or someone from a high-caliber family. I don't know exactly). My colleagues have arranged this. These Sheikh people want to watch live how I can have sex with 20 men in one session. It's all arranged. So before coming to your sex party, I would have already gone through a wild session here in Muscat. And then I will be in Dubai. I have only 2 men colleagues with me (the third one could not come). They will stay in hotel in Dubai. And I can join your sex party dear OR you don't want me to come to your party now? What's the matter? You looked worried in your last urgent e-mail...

I don't know that during this journey (flights, airports, wild party sessions) will I be able to communicate with you or not... But I am reaching Dubai as soon as this royal-style wilderness finishes in Muscat, Oman. The party here is on Saturday. So after this see you & your squad in Dubai. Once I am in Dubai, I will let you know where you can come to pick me up. Or if you're busy, tell me how do you want me to come?

Hey it's going to be a great sexual thrill. My show with 20 men in Oman, and then with your squad of 14 men in Dubai - subsequently 2 sexy days in a row, one after the other...

All the best

Omar, we're already at the airport. Through someone at the airport, I tried to call you 3/4 times at around 19.25 (your European time). You can check your telephone set! I am not very good in technical matters like setting Messenger etc. So I called you.

This e-mail, I have requested someone here to arrange for a few minutes only. We should speak from Oman or in Dubai.

Now we already have tickets/boarding passes. My colleagues have gone to duty-free shop. We're leaving shortly.

Listen, I will come to this sex party straight ahead, and I will see Sherry face-to-face. I don't care what she says, agreed or not agreed about me. There are certain things that I and Sherry have to discuss alone, face-to-face, in person! But if you like, before doing this I can speak to you on phone from Oman, or you can call me to Oman. I will send you the telephone number. The people whom I am meeting there are very high-caliber, much more than Sherry Rehman or her entourage.

For you, I have developed a very strange kind of appreciation. You don't have to tell Sherry that you are communicating with me. Now I will not be able to contact you before I reach Oman. Perhaps from Oman, immediately I might not be able to send you a local number, but I will send you definitely. And I will meet you in Dubai, just alone before I go and come across Sherry at her sex party.

If possible, send me your tel. number in Dubai. Talk to me in Oman and then see me in Dubai. For you dear, I will not go to Sherry unless I see you first. Only if for some reason, you're stuck somewhere and we can't meet, then I will have to go and meet Sherry straightahead. I am not going to speak to her about our (you & me) communications. I have to sort out some other important matters with her. I will not give her any chance to avoid me.

Because in a little while, I am going to special party session and I might not be able to communicate.

In this new message, I have also mentioned how to meet in Dubai.

Saira

I am still in Oman. The "main party" is tonight. Most probably, tomorrow I will be in Dubai. I will contact you as soon as I am in Dubai.

Right now I can't say how many days I will stay in Dubai.

I am not going to speak with Sherry about what you mentioned in e-mails - the details about sex parties. I understand this. You should not be worried for this point.

---

New Message:

Even if I don't come to the villa, I will find Sherry somewhere in Dubai to be "in face-to-face" with me. I will track her down anyway.

If I really want to come to this villa, I can easily find a way to come into this area by arranging a meeting with someone else living in this area. And then I can come in front of the villa and create a BIG SCENE outside the villa (something like a protest). It will be a trouble for Sherry also. I also have my contacts with some top influential people. But only because of you dear, I will not do this. But I have to find Sherry somewhere else in Dubai! That's a must.

Omar now you don't want me to come to Sherry's sex party. And you said you cannot make another sex party for me. What is this? You invited me so warmly, and now all this... Anyway, tomorrow on Sunday evening, normally I can meet you around 21h. So keep this time free.

I can meet you at Radison Blue Diera Greek Hotel (in the restaurant by the swimming pool). But I will confirm you again for time and place.

Now sexy, I am having very good time here. The "main party" with 20 men around me will be tonight. Some Sheikhs (I think they're from the top-lines) will be there. Before this party of tonight, some other guests have also come to meet me. They were also VIPs, but not Sheikhs. Since I have reached here, these other guests have been fucking me almost continuously. I think they liked to see me being fucked this way. Yesterday, during the day-time, 6 men had sex with me. Then 3 more joined them. They gave me 2 to 3 shots each. So only during the day-time, I was banged more than 18 times.

Then last night, there were 7 men first, then 4 more joined later in the night. They fucked me the whole night. I could not sleep during the night. Only after the breakfast, I slept. I think I have never been fucked so much continuously. My pussy is little swelled up now.

Even today, after I wake-up, I have 4 men but after having single shot with each of them, I have asked them only to slowly caress my pussy with cream - so that I can be prepared for tonight's special session. I think now you might have to give a slow caress with cream or oil on my pussy and ass, before anything wild.

See you in Dubai

Saira

Hey you the Captain of the sex squad

Now I am in Dubai. I will call you sometime between 6 and 7pm on your Intalian cell. phone no. 00-39-345-492.62.77. As you said it will be working in Dubai.

For our meeting, it will be on one of these 3 places (I will confirm you later, which one):

1. Radison Blue Diera Greek Hotel, Dubai
2. Jumeirah Beach Club, Dubai
3. Park Hyatt in Abu Dhabi

Dear one more thing. Some VIP guests from Oman have accompanied me to Dubai. They're 4 men. They're with me. But I will come alone to meet you.

But perhaps I might not be able to stay long with you because I have to return to these guests. They want to have sex with me tonight.

I have taken a local sim card but it's not activated yet.

The number is: 00-971-50-735.11.87 (if you call from your Italian phone).

OR if you call from a local phone, you should dial: 050-735.11.87

See you soon

THE LAST MESSAGE (FROM SAIRA TO OMAR)

Omar I Missed You

From: Saira Mir <sairamir90@....com>
To: "omar....@....com" <omar....@....com>
Sent: Tuesday, August 20, 2013 2:57 AM
Subject: Omar I Missed You

Omar dear, yesterday I could not stay long in the hotel. I tried but I had to go back quickly - as I told you I have to spend time with these 4 VIP guests who have accompanied me from Oman. I don't want to return to Pakistan. I want to be in Europe as soon as possible. And for this I needed the support of these people. They have made all the arrangements for me to go there. Now I am leaving. I will be in South of France. I am going to live in Antibes. By tonight I will reach Munich, and then to South of France.

Now I will have an independent and free life. I will contact you as soon as I am settled down.

My 2 colleagues from Pakistan must be very very angry when they will find out that I have left.

For my share/claim on the property and assets of the relevant man, I can file the case from Europe (through a lawyer in Pakistan). The four guests from Oman are still in Dubai (so that my colleagues from Pakistan don't suspect that I have left with them). But these guests from Oman are going to join me in a few days. They will spend a few more days with me. But they cannot live in Europe because they have their VIP life in Oman. They will make the arrangement for my accommodation in Antibes. They will come to visit me in Antibes from time to time (or whenever they want).

But generally I will have a free life to do whatever I want.

You know Omar, in Oman, I had so much sex continuously that I never had before.

Ah, how was your party in Dubai? How has been your performance?

I am looking forward so warmly to see you now in Europe, with all my heat and enthusiasm ready for you.

Even here in Europe, I cannot take care of everything myself. I might need your help also...

All the best for you

Yours Saira sexy

A CROSS-EXAMINATION: INCEST IN A MODERN-DAY POLITICAL DYNASTY

Benazir Bhutto & Company

Swinging lifestyle, swapping sexual partners, wild sex among strangers... That was the focus of my investigation. I never thought about working on incest! Incest (sex between close and immediate family members) was far away from my workshop and cross-examinations. It just came on my way incidentally.

It was August 2013. For last one year, I had been putting together the broken pieces of a larger than life picture of a political elite - a rare picture showing the libertine sex lives of some high-profile women from Pakistan. They included Sherry Rehman, Pakistani Ambassador to the United States and her close friend Benazir Bhutto, former Prime Minister of Pakistan - and their entourage... This all began when an eBook appeared, "My Sex Life in Paris" by Saira Mir. This was the tale of her wild sexual encounters in private sex parties and exclusive swingers' clubs in Paris. I was indirectly connected to the story of this woman Saira Mir. So I was able to have the access to info & events surrounding different people appearing gradually in a chain of events full of intrigue.

Kiran had stopped the e-mail communication with Saira as advised by Sherry Rehman. But I had many other sources of information... During mid July-2013, I came to know about an upcoming sex party in UAE. Raj, a reporter for Aljazeera in Qatar was closely coordinating with me. He had informed me that a high-profile sex party was going to be organized in some luxury hotel in UAE sometime during August. The party host was Sherry Rehman. But the exact dates and venue was not tracked down yet by the young and energetic reporter. On the other hand, Saira mir was getting e-mails almost regularly from the people who liked and appreciated her book. On 31st July, an e-mail was addressed to Saira by a man Omar. Here the events took another turn...

Omar was the co-organizer of sex parties with Sherry Rehman. He was engaged/hired in the past and present by Benazir and Sherry for giving them his "intimate services". Now he was the one arranging this secret VIP sex party in Dubai along with Sherry Rehman. Omar had read about Saira Mir's story online and he was enthralled by the tale of her wild sexual encounters. Now he wanted to invite Saira to their sexual escapades. So he wrote to Saira and told her about this VIP sex party that was going to take place at Benazir's villa in Emirates Hills on 19, 20 & 21 August. He clarified in his e-mail that he would get Saira to contact Sherry Rehman, Bilawal Bhutto (the son of Benazir & Asif Zardari) and Shehla Raza who could assure her about this safe and discrete sex party in Dubai. Bilawal Bhutto was also among the distinguished guests invited in this wild sexual event. Omar had been a first-hand participant in sexual encounters with Benazir and her entourage. He revealed to Saira so many things about the wilderness that he had witnessed in this high-flying family.

So far, I was looking for a dynamic sex story to emerge – but nothing more than an expected sexual wilderness where different people have open sex with various people... swapping partners for diversity and erotica... And all this would still be a big-bang for an everyday world. But then one day Raj, the Aljazeera reporter called me and said hesitantly, "Look, the sex parties and sex between known and unknown people is certainly worth discovering but apart from this, there are some bizarre things going on that I have heard of. It's about incest - sex between close and immediate family members. I have heard in some closed circles that Benazir had some unusual and bizarre relations with Bilawal, his son. Perhaps you can probe into this through Saira & Omar?"

I remained silent for a few moments. I thought for a while and then responded in a low tone, "Listen Raj, these things might exist. But that's not our stuff. We're not working on this. Incest, it has existed in the history! I have read somewhere about the Roman emperor Nero who was into incest with his mother and sister. Even if incest runs across Benazir's family, it's the dirt, the shit. If I see a dog's shit on a sidewalk, what should I do? I can only warn people and indicate towards the path where some dog's shit is lying down but I will not hold it in my hands to show it to others to tell them about its existence".

Our conversation of that day ended at this point. This was my firm stand for dealing with the aspect of incest in Benazir's family. But then I also did not want to make Raj completely uncomfortable. Above all, he was a valuable source of information and my good coordinator in the Gulf region. So I probed into this aspect little further through Saira towards Omar. I thought that whatever initial feedback would flow from Omar and Saira, I would fast-forward that to Raj. But that would just stop there. I would not elaborate the aspects of incest and it will not be a part of my work. That was my firm decision so far. Once I got the various details of incestuous acts going on within Benazir's family, I was shocked to my roots. It was all so unbelievable - yet true. I was having hard time to absorb this. And then I thought, "We should not be limited to our taboos around us in today's society. We also have a responsibility in a 'historical context' towards our future generations. We should contribute to the history, add the historical elements. We should 'document' whatever exists - good or bad, beautiful or ugly...it's all part of life. Images of sorrow, pictures of delight, things that go to make up a life..."

Anecdotes:

The communication between Omar and Saira follows with the explicit description of various sexual acts between Benazir, Sherry Rehman, Omar, Jason Khan - and other participants in group sex...

Later on, Omar also specifies about the "incest" in Benazir's family, "Incest is like a tradition or custom in their family. That's what I have seen with Benazir." Then it goes on to the explicit description of incestuous acts between close and the immediate family members of Benazir. These revelations are made not only by Omar who has been a first-hand participant in these wild sexual escapades - but they're also confirmed by a well-known British female journalist who has been very close to this high-flying family. She is working for a leading British newspaper and she has written clearly in her e-mail sent from the official e-mail account of her newspaper - about sex parties and the incestuous relationships in Benazir's family...

This journalist comments precisely in the following words: "Incest goes with their high-flying lifestyle, and runs across the family horizontally and vertically. Both Sanam Bhutto and Benazir Bhutto are and were into incest respectively. And it still continues today. Benazir had a mystical outlook towards life. She was known to have been enthralled by Cantonese amatory and ancient Japanese erotic cultural influences."

Then she mentions about the current sexual relationships going on between Benazir's family members - and the rift between certain women within the family...

The difference between Omar and the British journalist is that Omar has described everything in explicit and graphic language, while the journalist has maintained a more sophisticated tone.

POST SCRIPTUM

Benazir Bhutto into incest - having sex with her own son... Omar witnessed Benazir in sexual acts with Bilawal first time in 2004 (Bilawal must be 16 at that time). That means Benazir was engaged in sex with a teenager, a minor. She was the one who put her son on this path. These aspects of her life shocked me. This was beyond my perceptions. I did not want to believe this. Why such dark secrets came into my knowledge? I was better off without these revelations. I was investigating only about libertine sex lives - digging out a spicy sex story. But the outcome turned out to be completely unexpected.

During her student life at Oxford Benazir wrote an article, “Sex and Pakistani Society”.

The central concept of her article is that sexual repression increases psychological disorder and the tendencies of violence - while sexual freedom can make people open towards more humanist values such as love and care for others. This could be useful in building up tolerant societies.

I read her entire article with an open mind. Benazir had tried to advocate sexual freedom in a scholarly way, certainly thinking of herself as an advanced soul. Being a liberal myself, I don't disagree with her. But at the same time I would definitely question about the difference between “sexual freedom” and “sexual wilderness with no boundaries”. Here I would like to break the layers of the “self-pride” of these high-profile ladies by putting forward this argument, without bringing up any conventional morality to their free-flying souls:

“Sexual adventures, swapping partners among friends or strangers... I might understand this. But what makes them move into incest? That's the question they have to answer. They believe on human progress through liberal ideas. Fine, but human evolution has taken place only by adopting certain rules, mechanisms, civilized methods and boundaries... Sexual wilderness can be fulfilled with sexual encounters among friends or strangers. You don't have any need to go with the immediate family members. This is also inappropriate biologically. Even for erotica, you don't have to be blind. Above all, we human beings definitely need certain moral boundaries with each other and around ourselves! Apparently, they don't believe on any boundaries. Perhaps they think of themselves above everything - living in a special world above everyday and everyone else's world. If they truly believe in their ideas and lifestyle, why don't they stand up and speak openly for their bold and unusual acts? That's my question to Bilawal Bhutto, Sherry Rehman and Benazir Bhutto. That's a voice they will have to listen!"

EXAMPLES FROM THE HISTORY

WAS BHUTTO FAMILY UNDER THE EROTIC INFLUENCE OF ANCIENT ROYAL DYNASTIES?

Roman Emperors: Theodora, Caligula, Agrippina, Nero

In the history we had examples of Roman emperor Nero who was into incest with his mother Agrippina. Earlier, his maternal uncle Emperor Caligula had sex with all his sisters, Drusilla, Livilla and Agrippina the Younger. So Agrippina, Nero's mother had gone through the experience of incest from her young age and moved on with this tradition. Empress Theodora was also an example who according to the scholar Procopius would order 30 slaves at a time for her sexual pleasure.

Benazir Bhutto, a “White Tigress” from the ancient times...

Was Benazir Bhutto influenced by Roman emperors?

According to the British journalist (who has been very close to Bhutto family), Benazir was known to have been enthralled by ancient Chinese and Japanese erotic cultural influences. This observation might lead to take a look at the myth of the “White Tigress” in ancient Chinese sexual tradition propagated and maintained through a long stream of consorts and female Taoists.

It is explained in a work by Hsi Lai who taught and lectured throughout the world on Taoist related subjects.

WHITE TIGRESS:

Sexual Secrets of China's Female Consorts & Taoists

These practices were originally influenced by the teachings of Western Royal Mother (appearing sometime during China's mythical period prior to 2700 B.C.E) and tantric teachings stemming from India during the T'ang dynasty (618 to 905 C.E). The unique aspect of the White Tigress is the claim that women have their own unique process for acquiring the spiritual and physical goals of Taoism, namely restoring youthfulness and attaining immortality (longevity).

White Tigresses discovered that oral sex, when focused on transformational experiences, restored their bodies and health, as well as provided spiritual teachings. In terms of White Tigress teachings it is said:

With sexual intercourse, the female creates a material child.
With oral sex, her childlike affinities are recreated.

The full meaning of this verse is very extensive, but it expressed the idea that with oral sex a female can create a brainchild, recreate her youthfulness, or form a spiritual child within herself.

In order to practice and achieve her goals a White Tigress made frequent use of what she called a “Green Dragon”, selected men whom she would orally seduce for the purpose of acquiring their semen and sexual energy. The White Tigress understood that the intensity and excitement experienced through the seduction of new and unfamiliar males far exceeded the energy derived from routinely having sex with just one male. Therefore, in verse the White Tigress Manual states:

“One hurried and passionate clandestine encounter with a stranger outside the home is more beneficial than a hundred quite and relaxed engagements at home with one’s mate.”

Therefore, the White Tigress would orally seduce men of her choosing wherever and whenever possible in order to ensure her acquiring large quantities of semen, increase her production of saliva, make the oral activity more intense and passionate, and enhance her experiences for absorption of male sexual energy.

Within the White Tigress Manual, and in Japanese Geisha documents as well, it says:

With each act of intensely performing oral sex and congealing of semen, she increases her life span by seven days.

*With those experiences where she enters deep contemplation of absorbing male sexual energy,
she increases her life span by twenty-eight days.*

If hypothetically, we take the White Tigress teachings as an influence on Benazir Bhutto, what aspect can make a woman with such a high-calibre move into incest?

Sociologically, incest is witnessed more among the people who're found in sexually deprived conditions or within the families living in economically very poor circumstances...

So for the high-profile people, one should look for other factors that could motivate them to go into incest. Even the erotica could not be a reason because for eroticism only they have plenty of choices around them.

If Benazir was known to have been enthralled by ancient Chinese and Japanese erotic cultural influences, following the White Tigress teachings - restoring youthfulness through absorption of male sexual energy, moving with the concept of a material child through sexual intercourse and a brainchild or a spiritual child within herself through oral sex... One can reasonably conclude that Benazir moved into incestuous relation with her son Bilawal with a belief that:

“Through the sexual intercourse, she created a material child/man.

With the reverse sexual act, she was forming a spiritual child within herself.

Through the sexual act, once she gave the birth to a child, and now this grown-up boy is giving her the sexual energy for creating a spiritual child within herself - and at the same time restoring her youthfulness.”

One wonders if there were some teachings for drinking the blood of others for youthfulness and acquiring spiritual energy, how would these adventurers act? However there are many people who think that politically and economically, these dynasties have been drinking the blood of their people! And what they have acquired - youth, eternity, spiritual energy or a black heaven with dark stars? That's a question remains to be answered.

Examples from Gandhi's unusual sex life.

(Excerpts from the book, Gandhi: Naked Ambition by Jad Adams)

Thrill of the chaste: The truth about Gandhi's sex life

With religious chastity under scrutiny, the light is thrown on Gandhi's practice of sleeping next to naked girls. In fact, he was sex-mad, writes biographer Jad Adams

By the end of August 1947, Gandhi was sleeping with both Manu (his grandniece) and Abha (the wife of his grandnephew Kanu Gandhi) at the same time...

It was no secret that Mohandas Gandhi had an unusual sex life. He spoke constantly of sex and gave detailed, often provocative, instructions to his followers as to how to they might best observe chastity. And his views were not always popular; "abnormal and unnatural" was how the first Prime Minister of independent India, Jawaharlal Nehru, described Gandhi's advice to newlyweds to stay celibate for the sake of their souls.

"It's possible that his preaching about chastity (no lustful intention) was a pretext to lead an unusual sex life."

Meanwhile, Gandhi was challenging that abstinence in his own way. He set up ashrams in which he began his first "experiments" with sex; boys and girls were to bathe and sleep together, chastely, but they were punished for any sexual talk. Men and women were segregated, and Gandhi's advice was that husbands should not be alone with their wives, and, when they felt passion, should take a cold bath.

The rules did not, however, apply to him. Sushila Nayar, the attractive sister of Gandhi's secretary, also his personal physician, attended Gandhi from girlhood. She used to sleep and bathe with Gandhi. When challenged, he explained how he ensured decency was not offended. "While she is bathing I keep my eyes tightly shut," he said, "I don't know... whether she bathes naked or with her underwear on. I can tell from the sound that she uses soap." The provision of such personal services to Gandhi was a much sought-after sign of his favor and aroused jealousy among the ashram inmates.

Meanwhile, it seemed that challenging times required greater efforts of spiritual fortitude, and for that, more attractive women were required: Sushila, who in 1947 was 33, was now due to be supplanted in the bed of the 77-year-old Gandhi by a woman almost half her age. While in Bengal to see what comfort he could offer in times of inter-communal violence in the run-up to independence, Gandhi called for his 18-year-old grandniece Manu to join him – and sleep with him. "We both may be killed in this inter-communal violence," he told her, "and must put our purity to the ultimate test, so that we know that we are offering the purest of sacrifices, and we should now both start sleeping naked."

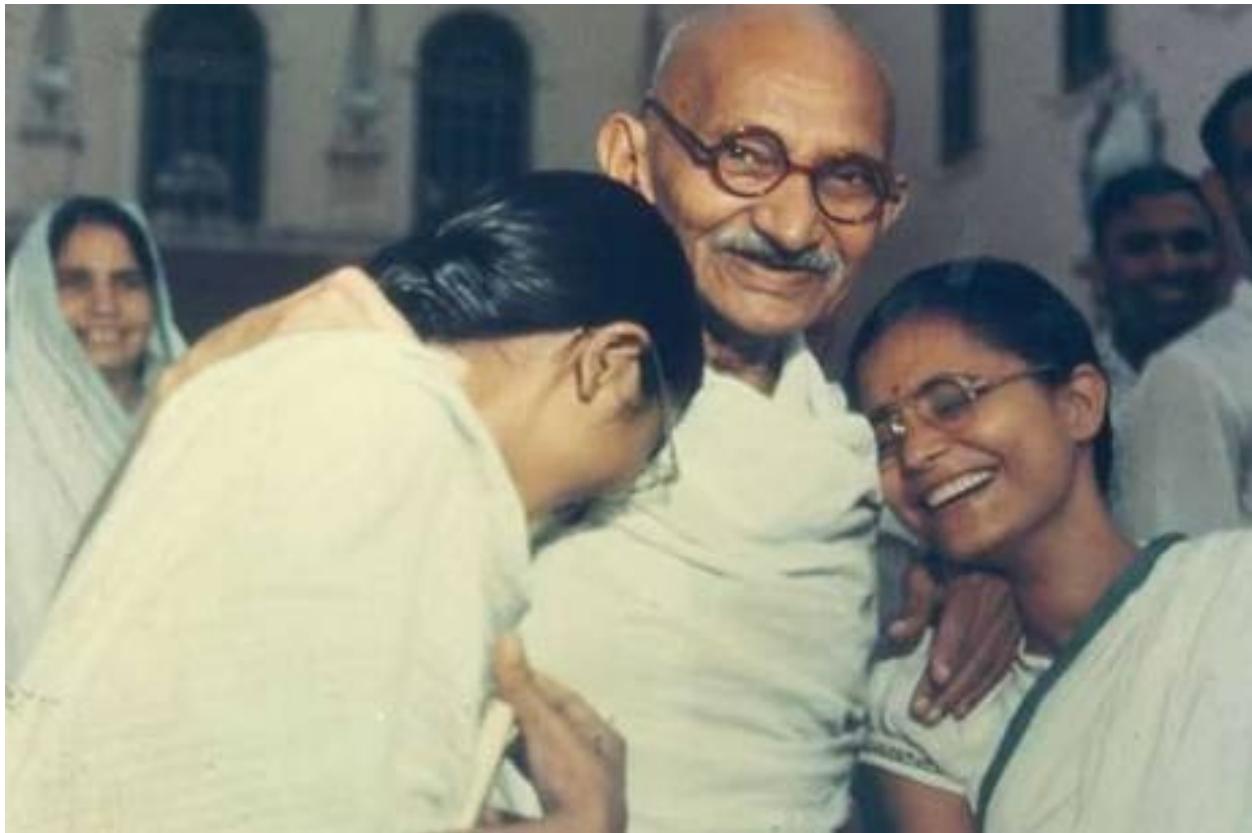

But while he was becoming bolder in his self-righteousness, Gandhi's behaviour was widely discussed and criticised by family members and leading politicians. Some members of his staff resigned, including two editors of his newspaper who left after refusing to print parts of Gandhi's sermons dealing with his sleeping arrangements.

Eighteen-year-old Abha, the wife of Gandhi's grandnephew Kanu Gandhi, rejoined Gandhi's entourage in the run-up to independence in 1947 and by the end of August he was sleeping with both Manu and Abha at the same time

Questioned in the 1970s, Sushila revealingly placed the elevation of this lifestyle to a brahmacharya experiment was a response to criticism of this behaviour. "Later on, when people started asking questions about his physical contact with women – with Manu, with Abha, with me – the idea of brahmacharya experiments was developed ... in the early days, there was no question of calling this a brahmacharya experiment." It seems that Gandhi lived as he wished, and only when challenged did he turn his own preferences into a cosmic system of rewards and benefits. Like many great men, Gandhi made up the rules as he went along.

While it was commonly discussed as damaging his reputation when he was alive, Gandhi's sexual behaviour was ignored for a long time after his death. It is only now that we can piece together information for a rounded picture of Gandhi's excessive self-belief in the power of his own sexuality. Tragically for him, he was already being sidelined by the politicians at the time of independence. The preservation of his vital fluid did not keep India intact, and it was the power-brokers of the Congress Party who negotiated the terms of India's freedom.

Mohandas Gandhi

Hi Raj,

Thank you for your help. I just hope a case like Deborah doesn't happen again. Regretful as it is about the absence of any judicial process or protection I feel the rulers in UAE are more sensitive to their image worldwide. On your queries:

1. Jason had been sleeping with her as early as her late thirties. She was leader of opposition in the Parliament and I feel Jason provided her with an alternative comforting companion ship.
2. I don't know exactly. I can only speculate. She had a very potent amorous life as a teenager and during her twenties. Her escapades during early 1970s including incestuous liaisons with younger brother Shahnawaz were the stuff of Oxford party banter. Since I wrote my first article I have found that physical intimacy among familial lines is a Bhutto legacy. She could have just been doing what was a precedent. Jason was related by her second cousin, I feel since her religion allows cousin marriages so it might not be seen as an incestuous relation.
3. Yes, Nicholas had been tagging along with Jason on parties held on the Yacht. It was on a couple of occasions but unlike Jason who accompanied her for extended number of years.
4. Fatima Bhutto who is another niece of Benazir and a social butterfly was attending a libertine party arranged by Nicholas. However, she stormed out after she found that Bilawal who is son of Benazir was at the same venue. She was furious that she had been tricked into getting intimate with Bilawal. The complete affair was conceived by Sanam Bhutto the aunt of Bilawal with a view of reconciling Fatima with Bilawal. Both families are estranged after the assassination of Fatima's father during the premier ship of Benazir in the 90s'. It created quite a stir in the circles here. Bakhtawar who is the younger sister of Bilawal also has occasional flings with him. Although they have tried to keep it beyond the immediate family. My perception is that it goes with their high flying life style, and runs across the family horizontally and vertically.
5. Bakhtawar is having a relationship with Nicholas and from time to time with Jason. Asif Zardari the father of Bilawal was extremely furious about Bilawal and Bakhtawar cavorting with each other and according to my sources had seriously reprimanded Bilawal a few months ago. Zardari will be moving to New York in two months and will keep Bilawal away from the other family members. Bakhtawar continues to see Nicholas and Jason. Bilawal wants to court Fatima but she does not agree to it. Sunny is acting like a glue and trying to keep the whole family together.

I hope this answers your queries. What party is Jason attending in Dubai. Who is he seeing this time? If Bilawal is going with him then why is Sunny not going?

I plan to visit UAE in Dec. Hope to meet you and see all the great places and pace of development.

Regards

Lydia

Hello Lydia,

Thank you for your feedback and frank observations. I don't have all information about the social meetings of Jason in Dubai. From your assertion about Sunny (Sanam Bhutto) accompanying him, can I assume correctly that Sanam Bhutto is also physically involved with Jason? If Jason was involved with his aunt Benazir then is Sanam Bhutto having a similar incestuous affair with her nephew Bilawal? Since you mentioned that she is the "glue" keeping the family together.

You said that it is a "life style" and "runs across the family horizontally and vertically", does it mean that there are other incestuous relationships in the Bhutto family. (Other than Fatima Bhutto)

I recently found out that Benazir was involved in some incestuous relations with very close and immediate family members other than her nephew Jason. Do you have any information about that?

Is it ok if we talk about this tomorrow since I wanted to get a clear picture of such an intriguing dimension of a "high flying family".

Whenever you have plans to visit please let me know and I will be happy to be of service to you.

With best regards

Hello Lydia,

Thank you for your time. It is always a pleasure talking with you which I find very illuminating and educational. With reference to our conversation today and earlier discussions, my main research area now is the development of incestuous life styles in high class societies along with the social clubs that support them. It would be interesting to see if you have any documentary information about the "mama club" concept.

Now talking specifically about incest in Benazir Bhutto's family, as you told me that Sanam Bhutto is having a sexual relationship with Bilawal Bhutto. I was very surprised to hear it but I can understand keeping in view what you mentioned about the "horizontal and vertical" incest connections in the Bhutto family.

I am intrigued to know the extent of the incest web in the Bhutto family. From Fatima Bhutto to Sanam Bhutto and even Bhaktawar Bhutto with Bilawal Bhutto, Jason Khan and Nicholas Khan with Benazir Bhutto, was there any connection left out. You mentioned that Benazir Bhutto having a sexual relationship with Bilawal has not been corroborated by you but by Jason Khan and Nicholas Khan. Can you please elaborate about it.

I want your perspective about the buildup of incest in this family. From a historical and academic perspective. To me it looks like the family of Nero in ancient Rome. What do you think about it? Also what was all that talk about Benazir Bhutto being a "match maker".

I look forward to having an intellectual conversation with you about this dark side of human beings.

With Best Regards

Raj

Hi Raj,

Mama club is a new term for me. I will look for evidence pertaining to it. I don't know about any such thing in UK. Both Sanam and Benazir Bhutto are and were into incest respectively. What I have gleaned from the Roper family strongly suggests it still continues today. Sexual intimacy between Benazir Bhutto and her son Bilawal has been talked about in hushed tones at private gatherings. I was privy to an event where some members and close family friends had talked about it in superfluous terms. Jason and Nicholas are very clear about their liking and still fondly remember Benazir with very strong non-platonic emotions.

I never had the chance to speak directly with Bilawal about his relationship with Benazir but a close mutual friend has shed very scant light on this abnormal relation from time to time. I plan to dwell further and find out how such intimacy developed. My observation is that Benazir had a very mystical outlook towards life and she was heavily influenced by eastern cultures. I don't know about Greek or Roman influence but she was known to have been enthralled by Cantonese amatory and Japanese erotic cultural influences.

Being a match maker meant that she was very proactive in matrimonial advice and had been responsible for many couples finding each other.

I have become interested in this subject about the Bhutto family and could restart my dormant research over their family affairs. Have you found anything about the party being held in UAE? What is the nature of the party and who are the other participants.

Best Regards

BENAZIR TALKING TO HERSELF: THE TRUTH HURTS

I discovered a piece written by Benazir Bhutto herself. I forwarded that to some close friends of Benazir with the following comments:

I have found a piece written by Benazir herself.

It's wonderfully written. Though it's quite abstract in tone, without a clear-cut topic, I liked it tremendously. It's more like "poetic reflections"- an abstract poetry. It has a very personal touch... It's not political.

"The most interesting part is that without knowing that it's written by Benazir, I just loved it.

I felt we two were talking to each other, the writer and I.

Despite of its abstract tone and hard-to-read stuff, I absorbed its intensity and its varying dimensions."

This gave me an idea to add a "thematic title" to this: "Pieces Written by Benazir and Her Close Friends" and make it a part of the book. Read this piece by Benazir and if you like, you can add your insights in this part. It could be your homage to your friend.

In these passages, I also sensed her feeling of some guilt about possible sins that she is trying to overcome... What do you think?

Benazir was your friend. Give her your homage (I don't mean just senseless and hotchpotch praise), but some true objective analysis of what she was. I consider friendship as the most precious asset in life. It's even more valuable than intimate love affairs. Because "intimate relations" break-up, turns into bitterness... But a friendship remains.

Benazir Bhutto 3 - The truth hurts

Within realising that all that currently exist within this existence is ALL THERE IS, that ALL THERE IS, is what we have been, become and are as what we currently experience within ourselves and within this existence: I realised that one tends to want to, when really looking at the current situation – judge oneself for what we have done, become and currently are.

Certainly this process opens up all sorts of realizations of what we have done, become and are within ourselves and one most certainly do not particularly want to face it, because it seems so ‘bad’, ‘wrong’, ‘too much to handle’ – I most certainly understand the words: Truth Hurts!

Though, as I am here now, I’m looking at the words ‘Truth Hurts’ – in sound it’s: The Truth is Heard.

I myself, am currently in the process of actually realising all that I am responsible for within this world through my own actions and words as that of me which permeated and infiltrated this existence as me – which was supporting the illusion within which we currently exist and have accepted and allowed ourselves to be as the definition of who we are.

And I must face the truth of me – the truth of me being all that I have done, become and are within this existence through ‘playing my part in supporting the illusion’ – I must finally stop trying to run away, hide from myself – herein also quite an interesting observation because one cannot run away or hide from oneself, because self here as who I am is always here!

I’m always with me as me as who I am here!

And the truth of self, facing self, I experienced, is tough and it is difficult and there is much one endure – because the process of taking self responsibility for all that one has accepted and allowed takes courage, and much of it – this is certain.

I have to give me an opportunity to start over so to speak. Starting over from the perspective of giving myself a starting point within me from which I am able to start this process of finally facing my truth.

There has been a moment where I hoped that someone can or could say to me: ‘It is alright, you’re not a mistake, you’re not a bad person, you don’t have to be concerned or worried’ – and then in this, giving me the courage and a ‘it’s okay signal’ for all that I have done, become and are which will present some form of comfort from which I am able to start / begin this process – understanding from someone. Someone to be here with me...

Yet, unfortunately, this is but another method of manipulation actually I realised – the ‘self pity’ and ‘self remorse’ pit which one tends to want to fall into, for someone to feel sorry for you and then help you in such a way. How many experience this – falling into the pit of self pity and self remorse?

I realised that I would only fall into the pit of self pity because of self judgement of me because of fear of the truth of me as what I have been, become and are.

Fear of self’s truth = self judgment = self pity: Which form a wound within self, wanting it to be healed by another as to so deem ourselves as not being ‘so bad’ and ‘terrible’ for what we have accepted and allowed within ourselves. But doing this – is not taking self responsibility and there’s no-one able to judge us, but ourselves.

I understand now that there’s no-one able to judge me, but myself and that I really actually create what I experience within me – and therefore I, I alone, must STOP.

So, I had a look at this 'hope' of wanting to receive consolidation from another – I took a deep breath and I said: I have to do this for myself, because if I don't actually take this step for me, within me – how will I ever understand what it means to take self responsibility for me?

So I discarded the hope of waiting and hoping and wanting another to comfort me – I had to, because this is one of the primary methods I used – allowing fear of me, then judging me, then pitying me – and so I just stopped.

The experience of having to stop is that of removing an inherent addiction within self, is what I have experienced. Because as I let go of this 'self pity' acceptance within me – the fear of letting go become much greater, encompassing the entirety of my being, but I pushed – as though I was a pregnant woman giving birth to a child. I literally screamed, I yelled to the point where all I could hear was my own voice as I literally had to push through this fear of letting go of and releasing the addiction to the acceptance of self pity.

There is a moment where I lost me in and as the fear, though yet even though within this momentary lostness, I was still very much aware I realised – because I just continued to push and did not stop.

It seemed never-ending for a moment also – but when it was done: I LAUGHED!

Because everything just stopped suddenly – I was empty within me, I was clear within me – I was still just here (though without the 'wanting to fall into the pit of self pity experience'). Really, everything just stopped.

The laugh was because of the absolute ridiculousness of the situation, of the experience.

Because I in this moment actually understood how 'real' an experience we're able to make of an illusion – because 'self pity', 'fear of me' and 'self judgment' are all but only illusions which I accepted and allowed to be me – in this definition of it being me, I made it real, which then transformed the experience I had of 'self pity', 'fear of me' and 'self judgment' as being real – WHEN IT IS NOT!

What I realised is illusion and what is real is when I experienced this moment of releasing the addiction of self pity, fear of me and self judgment – because as I pushed through it, it all disappeared and is no more here – though what I experienced as me when everything stopped: This is 'real' – where nothing exists but me.

And here I discovered the gift of self forgiveness.

Self forgiveness assists and supports me to not accept and allow me to judge me.

I experience self forgiveness as a statement of me, of who I am and it's quite an exhilarating experience because I am finally giving me the opportunity to take self responsibility for me.

One tends to fall into the trap of self judgment so easily because we in some way believe / think we deserve this experience we're currently having of ourselves within ourselves within this existence as ourselves because of what we've done, become and are: I could not believe that I myself actually bought into the belief within me that I deserve what I'm experiencing within me!

But I served what I experienced within me to myself - in accepting and allowing me to judge me – I am trapped into the cycle of the illusion, which I then experience as me, as actually being real and then I have to go through such an experience as what I have just shared, to understand and realise that that which I defined as me of the illusion is not who I am, but I made it real through making it part of me by allowing and accepting me to participate in it.

So I've realised that when I apply self forgiveness: I in this moment make a statement of me as to not accept and allow me to participate in the illusion – distinguish for myself what is illusion and from here stand up within me and just not make it part of me by participating in it.

And so self forgiveness assist and supports me to remain stable and clear here: Me with Me – and whenever I notice / find an connection of illusion within me: I apply self forgiveness immediately.

And so, through applying self forgiveness I ensure that I do not accept and allow me to participate in the illusion / make it part of me – but in the moment of applying self forgiveness make a statement for me of who I am.

Oh and how I have found that in moment's where I so almost just want to allow the illusion within me, so as to not have to apply self forgiveness, stand up within me and take self responsibility for me = because it seems so much easier and simpler to 'just allow it' or to 'just let it pass' than having to apply the self discipline to stop participation in the illusion in such a moment.

I discovered many such moments so far within my process.

Yet the most frightening of it all is that I am so very much aware of such moments where I see the illusion within me of me and I so almost want to just not stop it, to in some way 'turn a blind eye' as though I did not see it.

But I realised I cannot do it – I cannot just allow and accept it to continue, because I am aware that I am allowing and accepting it and I am also very much aware of the consequences involved if I were to accept and allow such a moment to just 'pass by'.

So it's quite a forceful effort where you in awareness have to and must apply yourself diligently and specifically in every moment when you notice/see/realise an illusion connection within you. Because we have for so long just simply accepted and allowed the illusion to continue within us and this existence = which we are no longer able to use and excuse.

I enjoy self forgiveness.

And I particularly enjoy when I catch such moments where I've almost wanted to 'just let it go' / 'just let pass' because I know within the certainty of me that I am just not able to allow and accept it to continue within me – and so I will stop participation in the illusion in every moment: Because this is actually me taking self responsibility for me.

Being alone with me, realising my self-responsibility towards me is really assisting and supporting me within this process – because I have no 'relationship connection' to anything or anyone: I am here with me as me.

There is nothing and no-one I fear losing, because I within me as me have realised and understood that I am not able to actually really lose me – I am always with me, myself here.

Thus, in not fearing to lose anyone or anything – I experience a freedom within me, within this process, within which I will push and force me to whatever lengths necessary in every moment to not accept or allow the illusion, and I would suggest for you to consider the same.

Because then you will move you, no matter what.

Then you will direct you no matter what.

Then you will force you and push you no matter what.

The freedom of self-responsibility.

This is my experience of me currently within this process.
